Bro. Lee Vayle

5/28/94-6/26/94

25min...Anybody that's wants to be full of the Holy Ghost and simply resorts to prayer, to fasting, to you know ...to pushing and pulling for the promises of God...and they did it in Pentecost they end up in complete violation of the Word and to their own dismay and destruction. You can only have this by reason of piling Word upon Word. And so you remember those things because if you don't remember them; James says you're like the man that looks in the mirror and straightly forgetteth what manner of person he was looking at.

In other words you might have seen a smudge of dirt on your face and you just walk off and say "Hey that's ok!" You might have seen something else you know that's just not too good to be there and you forget it and walk off. But looking in the Word you see who and what you are and to forget that is tremendously dangerous. And brother Branham was worried that this would happen because of various things that take place in people's lives known as the cares of the world choking out the growth. So keep that in mind because life's a very serious business.

29min 57sec...How much feeling is in your bone? Not too much. They can hurt but not too much. So now you come to the place where you're solid skeleton bone, life being produced in there. Going to change them bones one of these days hallelujah, change the flesh right through... starts by you receiving the Word up here without any conflict of thought... without any emotions.

This is that spoken by the prophet Joel. Huh? We have it, it's going to bring forth life. So don't forget it, don't lose it, don't waste it, don't look for something else, thank God you got it, rejoice in your inheritance His inheritance in the saints which is that Word deposited here. Because from that Word comes everything. What we're looking for even to the extent brother Branham was so correct when he said, "If we took that little modicum of faith we have with this great Word that we have (and we were allowed but we're not allowed). (If we were allowed, we would create worlds."

How much more then can we create an atmosphere? Now you see you're rejoicing and feeling built up now. If I was in Pentecost, I'd say, "Hallelujah you're feeling it now, glory to God! Let's all talk in tongues. Amen Jesus! Thank you Lord! All screaming, and jumping, and dancing over nothing - but verbiage taken out of context and therefore away from Almighty God with no blessing upon it except a feeling.

Here is where reality is, yes! And they accuse Lee Vayle of having no love. If I didn't have love do you think I'd talk this way and bring you this Word? But I've got to love this Word that came from Him before I can love you. And when I love that way, I can't help but share it.

44min 19sec...One thing about it we know that it's final. Many people think that they have it final. Well they do in the sense of the Word; it's all over for them. But we have a final revelation. There isn't another one to come. I think too many people (are) still looking for something and they'll get it too. Yeah! Yeah! What they look for... and they'll be looking for error. Because once Truth comes and you look for something else then error comes. You say, "Why?" Because there's no such thing as an error unless first of all there's Truth. It's got to be Truth before there's a counterfeit.

45min 44sec...Because as we come, we pile Word upon Word and makes one more and more full of the Holy Spirit until there'll be a Bride, of course it's a one to one confrontation; it'll be a Bride that's walking in the Spirit, living in the Spirit.

46min 45sec... There were many people in that meeting that night...in many of his meetings, agree, agree, agree, agree, oh yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, and they agreed faster than a Chinaman could eat rice with chop sticks. Or an Italian swirling it down with his spaghetti. All they get was spaghetti sauce in their face and rice coming out of their ears. There was no real agreement. There was no real believing; to really receive the Holy Spirit. If they really did, why are they looking today for all these guys to come by with their little song and dance and miserable little things that aren't even half genuine enough to make a person with a half an ounce of brains to even look a second time. Just tell you a bunch of haywire, clap-trap balderdash and take it down as though it's the nectar of God. They didn't believe the guy with the Token, didn't believe to apply it. If they'd applied it would they be in error?

51min 57sec... So we're always happy to know people that are solid in the truth. Of course people would think we are not solid in the truth. They just think we're frozen or something. That's alright. That's alright. If the baptism with the Holy Ghost doesn't have any evidence, I don't know why they're looking at spirit filled people to give the kind of evidence they want; when there's one deep evidence...that's down inside that you (he emphasizes the word know) know that it's been vindicated. You're standing with Truth, that's the thing we're looking at tonight.

1hour 11sec... Just got a letter the other day, have to tell you about it. It seems there was a man in Ireland heard a couple of Brother Branham's tapes 30 years ago and so he named his son...I think their name is McKinsty or something...named his son after Brother Branham. It was not the first part, just way down the line if you like... John Henry William Branham McKinsty, whatever it was. And now he's supposed to be a tremendous brand of fire over in Ireland.

And I guess the big thing is a band of angels came down and swept around him and told him things. And then they say that UFO's were sighted and the angels said, "We'll pick you up". Now you know who's to say that didn't happen? Who's to say it did happen? Somebody said it happened. Well, how do you know it's God? Where's any scripture for it? Oh they'll go running to him. Tell me something, do something. Forget it! Go back there (points to the picture of Brother Branham with the Pillar of Fire over him, and the picture of the Cloud of Angels). Just stick with that, stick with that. Nothing supersedes that. There's nothing... unless it's of the devil.

Now if you don't think that's right, I got news for you. Paul never led an exodus like Moses. Even Jesus didn't. The last man to have an exodus and we're talking about changing complete physicians and all else, was William Branham. You will notice it is either Moses himself or that same spirit that comes back at the end time. What would make anybody think, there'll be anybody ever come back but William Branham? And he will have to be the first one up because age number seven comes up first...that'd be the first one up...right? You got scripture to back everything we believe. We take it nowhere but Scripture. I'm not against the guy...hey...he can have a million angels visit, but for me to even begin to listen to one word...forget it!

For Paul himself said though an angel or a whole bunch of angels from heaven came down...forget it. You know why? Angels are not involved, God is involved... right?! (people shouting "Amen") Thank you, let's get excited. Let's get very excited. Cursed are the dogs that can't bark and the sword that can't draw blood. Dumb dogs that idly stand by, can't even say woof when the thieves come. I wouldn't mind knowing if the man says anything but I'd sure take it right to the Word. (Bro Vayle chuckles) Phenomenon, Phenomena---hooey... Thus saith the Lord and discernment is the last sign the church would ever have to wake it up. They've turned it down. We've gone from there strictly to Word wherein there is Life; but only in a present day revelation Message of the end time...the seven part that brings the Pauline epistles and the Word given to the gentile church into perfect harmony with God Himself, making that beautiful Bride all glorious within and without, taken away to the wedding supper.

1hour 16min...There's no better place to be than the house of the Lord. Particularly if you come in faith and believe that the Lord will feed you the Word which alone is able to make you wise unto salvation, give you understanding, let you know the mind of God. Rather than attempt to tell God what His mind is. And in this last day we're fortunate that the Lord has made a way for us to know His mind. As Brother Branham said' "The last moving part of the body is the eye." of which he was the eye. And there's nothing left but the mind. And you know, that's the truth. You say, "Well Brother Vayle, I think that Brother Branham made a little mistake there. After all there's the heart." Well is your heart above your mind? I thought my heart was down here. So another thing is the heart is desperately wicked...oh my. So if you're trusting your heart, you're not very smart.

1hr 21min 45sec...I was just thinking the other day when I made a statement which is should clear up because I know it's too much across the board...but I'll try to get in the message here...that we're getting down to religion. We're not getting to politics anymore, we're getting to religion where religion is going to dominate politics. Right now religion is kicked out of the schools and everything. You watch what happens shortly, that'll all be reversed.
