

Seed of Discrepancy #16

Continuity of Unchanging Seed

November 12, 1995

...Heavenly Father, we thank You for Your Presence. We know that that assures victory, because even though we may be weak and undone, and actually, Lord, in the position which would be called poverty- stricken, by Your riches and by Your grace, You're able to overcome. Help us so we might be truly seated in heavenly places in Christ Jesus and receive the spiritual food in this due season making us wise unto salvation, getting us ready, preparing according to the Word of Truth, Lord, which so many people look at and pass over, put it in the past, which it is true in the past, but not realizing it is a perfect picture; it is a type of what has now become the prototype.

So, help us in our studies to just not neglect any truth, nor feel embarrassed or feel ashamed or feel puzzled or in any way, shape, and form, have any doubts or thoughts, other than what has been vindicated to us as Truth, and by that Truth, Lord, we know that we shall be prepared. Help us, therefore, to think in the terms of the Truth as vindicated only, not in old creeds and dogmas, for we have no part in them, and they have no part in us, Lord—a new garment, without patches, a life, Lord, that has come up to perfection, and end of all things in Your sight, all things that be shaken, shaken down and that which can remain, remain and Thou remainest, O God, in Your blueprint, Your revelation, Your manifestation, Your interpretation, Your Presence, whatever we know is given to us in that Word, which we appreciate and have this morning. So, we thank You for victory in Christ. In Jesus' Name we pray. Amen.

You may be seated.

1. Now, we'll just see how we make out today. I don't know just how collected I am, but that's all right. We'll collect a couple thoughts anyway.

Now I don't know just what number this is, as we're studying Bro. Branham's sermon "Seed of Discrepancy", which is simply a sermon on the fact that, where God started, all things were good, all things were perfect, all things were pure. And it looked as though God was certainly going to have His Kingdom of Heaven established on earth, and then, in due course of time, if He so desired, He would have that Kingdom wherever He wished it and whatever He would do with it. And, of course, we know that what's happened is really a problem that it would appear that anything that God wanted at that particular time, God didn't get it.

Now, don't mind this. I'm trying to lower this. [Bro. Vayle speaks of adjusting the pulpit height.] Okay.

2. Now, we recall the mystery of the tares (And the Bible speaks of that in the parables, so-called—really a mystery.) of Matthew 13, where Christ is speaking concerning that which is in the beginning and that which will take place at the end where the Kingdom becomes polluted. But at the end time it becomes perfect on the grounds that there'll be nothing left but what God has planted and what God has ordained to be a part of His Kingdom.

3. So, I want you to remember that as you read—as you think of it this morning. Otherwise, you'll look at this and think, "Well, that's a little, simple story. That's something that is interesting and gives a little picture." But you don't realize it's really the truth. See? It's... The people have an idea today that you could pick up maybe ten thousand, you could pick up one million, you could pick up five billion people on earth today, and, except for the color of the skin and the slant of the eyes and a few odd little things that they do, they're no different from anybody else.

4. You'd say, "Well now, how in the world are we going to look at this in the eyes of some of these are of the children of God, some of these are the children of the devil?"

Well, the point is they simply aren't reading their Bibles and believing It. And that's all it amounts to. And you say, "Well, I think it should be a little more complicated."

See, that's where you mess everything up. There isn't any complication here at all. A dog is a dog; a pig is a pig; a horse is a horse. And that's all there is to it. A child of God is a child of God. A child of Satan is a child of Satan.

But you say, "How did they get that way?"

Well, what's it to you? Why did Darwin go to the islands of Galapagos, and he found eventually that all the white pigeons and all the brown pigeons reverted to a slate gray? You'd have some kind of selective breeding, and you could do a little bit here and a little bit there, but you can't change specie. You can't change life.

5. Now, what they're trying to do is combine lives today and change the outer coating. But they're never going to change it. How are you going to change...? I don't care if you do take an ear of a person and put it on a mouse's back. Are we going to now take every ear of every person and put it on a mouse's back? You've simply got a little misfit of monstrosity for the time being. But you're never going to change species. It's utterly impossible. It cannot be done.

Even people today are looking to go back to original species. So, they come up with spelt, which is original wheat, and kamut, which is the original durum. They wanted to make some dogs one time that looked like the Egyptian dogs were. They had no hair and they were purple. So, they bred them. What happened? They just went back. You can't change these things.

6. Now, we recall that the mystery of the tares among the wheat is Mk 13:24-30, and verses 36-43 explain the original sowing of God, sons of God. Now, that's just all there is to it. I know that people want to sort of make some great mystery out of this, or they want to change this. You can't change It. It said God simply sowed His Own children, and that's all there is to it. If He said He sowed them, then He sowed them. Otherwise you've got Jesus coming as some sort of a half-baked, stupid philosopher. And, if he came as some stupid, half-baked philosopher, just give me one reason why he died on the cross.

7. We're dealing with specifics here. This is the thing that throws everybody, but a certain cultish people like you and me. We're called cults. Although the word 'cult' is really a good word... So, I'm a cult. They don't like it, they can lump it. People just don't want to believe.

Now, if we had sixty people here this morning and said, "Now, you don't know the first thing about this mystery of the Kingdom of God, of the children of God, that God Himself brought forth from His Own loins through human instrumentality starting with Jesus, and then, He brought forth a serpent seed by Eve playing the harlot.

You say, "Well, I'm not going to take that."

Nobody says you have to take anything. Figure up your own stew. When you die with indigestion, that's your tough luck because, you see, you don't believe. See, that's the trouble. And we know that unbelief is sin. It's the only sin there is. There isn't any other sin. Smoking, drinking, harlotry, all those things come out of the unbelief. If a person really believed, he wouldn't do it. He'd be a real believer. So, all right.

8. In this Scripture, which I've not read, but read several times before, explains the original sowing—the original sowing: what happened in the beginning when God literally brought forth sons of God for the Kingdom of Heaven, (See?) even as is said in Gen 2:7 and 15. Now, this gives you an idea why God put

His sons here and what He wanted, and this is certainly applicable to, and complimentary to, God and His sons. So, we look at [Genesis] 2:7, and It says:

- (7) And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

And then in Gen 2:15:

- (15) And the LORD God took the man, and put him in the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.

9. So, there's your picture. And it's a very nice picture. And this goes with Gen 1:26-28.

- (26) And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the fowl of the air, over the cattle, over all the earth, over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

- (27) So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

Now, what's the image of God? Jesus. Doesn't Hebrews tell you that's the image of God? Huh? How many images have you got?

"We've got six of them."

Fine. Name them to me. I'm not trying to brisk you; I'm just trying to make you think. Give me another place where there's an image. The definitive is: Christ is the image of God. He is not God, but he is an image. He's the out-flowing; he's the expression of the substance of God because that's all that was there when he was there. And God said, "In thee I have begun my generations. This day thou art my Son. I have begotten thee." [Ps 2:7] And Ephesians says we were in Christ, and he was in God.

Now, if I pull out a bucket of water, a gallon of water, from a five gallon bucket, and I hold it up here, and I dip in a cup, and I pull out one cup of that water, it's the same water that was in the five gallon jug, (Huh?) even though I got it out of the one gallon jug. No big deal. See? People just don't let their minds go. Oh, they want to get so complicated, want to get so spiritual. Oh, hogwash. The most spiritual person is the man who simply believes God, especially when it's vindicated.

10. So. He says here: [Gen 1:28]

- (28) And God blessed them, and...said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

Now, that's complimentary to a child of God that God brought forth. What else would you expect of him? Huh? "Oh, you're my son. I'm God. You're my son and you will grovel, and you'll be some kind of a misfit. But don't worry. Through the ages we'll work out a mutation, and we'll get you from a tadpole to a human being."

It's a good thing I've got a strong stomach. Because it's things like this that's very, very, very seriously disturbing.

11. But notice; an enemy, the devil, sows another seed. Now, that's exactly what the Scripture says. He sows another seed. That's exactly why Eve said—when rotten, old Cain, of the devil, slew Abel, and Seth came on the scene—she is granted another seed. Because the seed Seth was millions of miles different from the seed Cain. Remember; the Scripture distinctly says that Eve was the mother of all living. It says nothing of Adam being the father of the living. So, if It doesn't say it, don't grant it.

You've got a car setting there, and on the window it says, "In three hundred miles we'll change the tires." But it doesn't say one thing about the battery. Then don't go and say, "Well, when you change the tires you might as well give me a battery." They'll look at you and say, "Oh boy, another one." You know what you'll get? You'll get the tires but no battery.

Eve was the mother and proven scientifically. Eve is the mother of all living, but there is nothing said about the father. Now, that's science. That's developed in what? The last two years or three? I don't know. Time goes so fast, I don't know if I'm here or back in Chattanooga or somewhere. All right.

12. Notice, an enemy. And the enemy is called the devil. Number one: is called God. [God, sovereign, being there at the first.] From God somehow, whatever God did to bring forth those children and is thoroughly, thoroughly, thoroughly described... The devil—an enemy—sows another seed, the children of the devil. Thus, this is Gen 3:13. So, we go to Gen 3:13. Listen; you can never hear this enough because everywhere you turn, people hate serpent seed. The only one thing that gives the answer to the Word of God, they hate it. Sixteen hundred keys, and the one key that opens the Word, they don't want it. Sixteen hundred formulas, one of which kills your TB and gets you free of TB, do they take it? No! They take the one that clears the sniffles. They're not interested.

You say, "Bro. Vayle, how can they be so irresolute, so dissolute?"

Good question. Do you know why? Because they're children of the devil. That's all. Children of the devil. What do you expect from the devil? Huh? Who brought all this junk on we see? All right. Where are we at here? Okay.

13. Genesis 3:13.

(13) And the LORD...said unto the woman, What is this thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, (which, "He undid me one hundred percent morally," which means she had sexual intercourse.)

"I don't believe that."

Oh, God. What is the biggest pornographic thing on the market today? Humans and animals having sexual intercourse. Are you all stupid this morning? I'm going to be nice. Sorry. Forgive me for saying that. But I want to rouse you and make you think. From almost the beginning of time they've tried to cross human beings and apes and so on. It doesn't work. The horse and the ass are so close together, the seed can mingle, but they're hybrid; they cannot reproduce themselves.

It says right here: the woman said, "I've been completely undone. He fooled me." That's almost always the woman's story. "I was seduced," or, "I was raped." As far as I'm concerned, any woman raped, they should take the man and hang him—shoot him between the eyes with a 44. That would get rid of the crud.

You say, "Bro. Vayle, you're talking about me."

Fine. You'll get yours down at the end of the trail. God doesn't forget. The law makes excuses. God made a way. Turn that way down, watch what happens.

14. (14) And the LORD...said to the serpent, Because thou hast done this...

What did he do? He didn't get her to just look at the Word and deny the Word as to Its true revelation; he got her into a horrible situation. And she comes out of the thing pregnant. Now, this beast here, this serpent, was the smartest of all creatures; he could talk. We think it's wonderful we get a myna bird or a crow or a parrot to talk. This fellow couldn't only talk, he carried on a conversation. And he didn't wait and say, "Pretty bird, pretty bird. Polly want a cracker, Polly want a cracker." He came and started it. He said, "Eve, have you thought of this?"

You better be careful what voices you listen to: "Have you thought of this?" What does it look like?

15. Now, He said:

- (14) ...thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; and upon thy belly thou shall go, and dust thou shall eat all the days of thy life.

God changed every bone in that creature's body. But you go to Brookfield Zoo, and you'll find right there that the boa constrictor has remnants of hips and copulation as is human beings. They don't slither, slither around, but it's almost like a missionary position. And their blood's very close to ours. Because the serpent was a huge beast.

- (15) And I'll put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

Strange isn't it, how there's one thing really the human race can't stand is a snake? And isn't it funny how we call people snakes, too? So, that's Gen 3:13.

16. And with It we go to 1 Timothy 2, and let's just take a look at that. This is the apostle Paul with the full revelation of the Word of God. And remember; Bro. Branham's charge by Almighty God—if indeed it was Almighty God—was that William Branham would sow the seed of the entire Bible, from the serpent in the Garden to the prophet in the former rain. When did he preach "Serpent Seed"? 1958, around September. The man was commissioned by God to do it.

People don't like God to commission people. Oh boy, they like to have God commission them!

"I heard from God. I can tell God. God deals with me. He answers my prayer."

How many? How many? In one night I saw about twelve hundred people—cripples, deaf, dumb, and blind perfectly healed. What have you got in your life? Once in twenty years a little stomach ache cured. Well, that ought to do it really.

When you're dealing with God the magnificent, He's absolutely prolific and profligate in what He does for the people, lest they should come back and say, "I never saw enough."

My eyes saw enough with William Branham that I ought to be flying around here with angel's wings. Well, don't look for it. It doesn't rub off.

17. So, 1 Timothy 2:12:

- (12) But I suffer not a woman to teach, (Now, listen; first of all 11.)

- (11) Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

Eve shot her mouth off. The serpent came and said, "Yeah, hath God said."

She said, "Yeah, He certainly hath said." She should have said, "You better talk to my husband; it's forbidden that I talk."

Oh, that's a tricky one. It's not just confined with women who make messes of so many things because they don't have the spiritual qualities and aptitude give down by God to handle the Word. The men are just as virtue-ntly stupid. How many men do we have that never were called to a ministry, have got all the answers? How many sitting here—how many answers have you got? Want to compare them with mine? Mine's right; yours is wrong.

You say, "Bro. Vayle, how do you know?"

Because I've been in the ministry for over fifty solid years. That wouldn't make me right. But I can go to the Scriptures with everything Bro. Branham said. When I can't, I just wait until the time comes.

18. So, he says here:

(11) Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

Subjection to what? She hasn't got a comment on the Word. You and I don't have a comment on the Word. We learn with our mouth shut and our ears open. Like one person said, "You got one mouth and two ears; you ought to hear more than you say." Another fellow said, "Well, there's one thing you can shut, and it ain't your ears." You know, the Bible says the same thing. Now, listen.

(13) For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

Eve did not have a right to handle the Word of God. She had a right to clean the potatoes with Adam, to plant the carrots, to prune the trees. She had the right with him to control the cows and to control even the clouds and the fishes. She had marvelous co-equality with Adam, except with the Word. God never talked to Eve; He talked to Adam. I know that's rough. Women are smarter than men in many cases.

19. The other day I had to go to an oncologist. I thought it was Dr. Nataki. They gave me a woman, and I was pretty huffy. I said, "No woman's going to bother with me; I ain't going to bother with no woman." At my age I can afford to be huffy. If they don't like it, drop dead. I'm dying anyway. And they'll answer to God for it. Sure they will. But she was very, very good. I found her absolutely excellent. And she didn't agree with the male doctor whatever. And I'm on her side. The oncologist is better than the neurologist in my books. Far better. Far more understanding, far more everything. Women can be way, way smarter than men. In fact, I think they are. Like, the female of the species is more deadly than the male. See?

20. So, Adam was first formed, then Eve. So, you've got to stay in tradition: the head of the woman is man, the head of man is Christ, and the head of Christ is God. Then, how can they make Christ God? Good question. Where's your Trinitarian hogwash now? Now, listen.

(14) Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

(15) Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing...

What in the name of common sense has childbearing got to do with eating apples? Her conversation...hasn't got a thing to do with it. It tells you right here, that it's childbearing came out of the result of that serpent. And the study of history by Malik and Wilkinson [spelling uncertain; references unavailable through searches] will show you in the beginning the sons of God were children that herded sheep. They were mild, they were sweet, they were un-warlike, they were kind, they were loving, they worshiped God. But the others from Cain were violent, murderers, vituperous. Everything about them is what we call in a sinner. See?

21. Now.

- (15) Notwithstanding she'll be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

Childbearing today is very rough. It's always been rough to a degree, but the degree of roughness has been the sorrow and the pain from the childbearing. But now you've got children turned upside down in the womb. You've got Cesareans. You've got doctors pulling at little children until they become cerebral palsied, like my poor nephew. If he'd have been born awhile ago, it'd been a million dollar suit, and he'd have won it. Don't let anybody tell you that doctors aren't responsible for the cerebral palsy. That's the way it is. It's just not something that happens. Poor old doctor; he got sucked in. Hogwash. You'd better start reading a few books, and you'll find out a few things.

22. Childbearing is almost an ugly thing today because of the ramifications. Now they want you in the hospital one day, cut your prices down, boot you out for the next day. What if that woman needed help?

"Oh, forget it, forget it. For. . .get it.

What about that doctor's wife, the administrator's wife had problems? Oh, my God, they'd fly her to California, Kalamazoo, and London. See?

What's the secret? The secret is being godly, and women aren't going to have that trouble. I'm not saying it's possible that they don't have some trouble. See? They do. Jacob's wife had trouble, and she died in childbirth with Benjamin. Those things do happen; they're very, very odd. But you go back in her life, you're going to find she stole her father's idols. How much reality did she have in the God of Jacob? Well, that answers your question.

23. But he shows you right here what happened in the Garden of Eden had to do with childbearing, and childbearing can only come by sexual desire. I don't care what anybody says. That's the prophet's own statement is right. This is the injection of serpent seed amongst the human race, or the original sons of God. We see this in Gen 3:20.

24. You see, what we're doing is going back and looking at the original where everything was wonderful. Then suddenly—oy! My God, what happened! These wonderful people of God. God breathed into Adam the breath of lives, which Adam, as a human being, was able to pass on those souls which were a part of God. How many people really know that? Nobody knows that—hardly. And yet it's the truth. As Bro. Branham said, you were in your father. And who are you? You're the soul. Where did it come from? Came from God. Came right on down by human generation. The Kingdom of Heaven is likened unto a man. It's not likened to a horse. It's not likened to a tree. Has nothing to do with the cows and the pigs and the dogs and the cats. Men! You don't have a kingdom without men. The Kingdom of God is populated with God's Own children. I mean absolutely from the loins of God, a part of God.

You know, people don't believe that. They don't believe anything. See what I said at the beginning, simple assertion of fact, leaves the people cold with their own meanderings.

"Well, I wonder could it be that way? I wonder could it really be that way?"

That is the way it is. Oh man, we're not even halfway there, but there's some marvelous things to bring out here in this here. All right.

25. We were looking at Gen 3:20.

- (20) And Adam called his wife's name Eve; because she was the mother of all living.

And Eve couldn't call Adam anything because he wasn't the father of all living. He wasn't the father of Cain. How in the name of common sense could a true son of God like Adam, even though he was buffaloeed and sucked in...?

Hey, if you had a horse that got hit by a train and the veterinarian could fix that horse up (a good stud) so that it could sire colts by a good mare, what's the difference? What if he was on his last legs and had some kind of disease, but the reproductive organs were fine, and you wanted a horse from him? You could have it.

"Oh, I think that if maybe I did that, bred that horse, that animal with my mare, you know, Bro. Vayle, I think maybe a cow would come out of it."

Have you ever heard anybody talk such nonsense? Then why bring it to the Scripture? I don't understand. Oh, I do understand, but I get a little impatient. All right.

25. We see this in Gen 3:20, and we're continuing now in Gen 4:1. Eve is the mother of all living, but Adam is not.

- (1) And Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, (Now, already the serpent knew her, and she conceived, and Cain came along.) and (she) said, I've gotten (me) a man from the LORD.
- (2) And again bare his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of the sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the (soil).
- (3) And in the process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the LORD.
- (4) And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of the fat thereof. And the LORD had respect unto Abel and to his offering.
- (5) But unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wrath, and his countenance fell.

Now, can you believe for one minute that a son of Adam, Cain—if he were, would be different from Abel? Cain would be the first born with all the right to the inheritance. He would be the one propitiously so made that he would zero in on the inheritance from God. Why, this guy was a mess!

26. (6) The LORD said to Cain, Why are you wroth? And why is thy countenance fallen?
- (7) If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door, and unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

The actual Greek, the Septuagint, for some reason says it a little different. It says, 'If thou hast rightly offered, but thou has not rightly divided, and if thou hast not rightly divided, hast thou not sinned?' And that's one hundred percent what Paul said. It wasn't that this guy, Cain, didn't see the Word (didn't know something from God), but he chose to use it in his own manner. And he offered a first fruit type of offering. He wasn't listening to God. You don't offer a first fruit type of offering until you offer blood for sin. The first fruit shows that, "Hey, I'm glad the blood atoned for me and the horrible effects of sin are out of my life, and now I'm walking in the Light, and I'm bearing some fruit unto God." Cain couldn't do that. See?

27. We'd better keep reading.

- (8) And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.
- (9) The LORD said to Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, (I don't know). Am I my brother's keeper?
- (10) And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground.
- (11) And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand.

Now, you see what brought the curse on? The shedding of innocent blood. Why is our world in such a mess today? The shedding of innocent blood. See? God's Word never fails. God destroys them that destroy the earth. God destroys them that destroy His people. No, "There's no peace, my God said to the wicked." [Isa 48:22] What a terrible, terrible thing.

28. (12) (And) when thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

Now, that's something. A fugitive and in bondage. Always running, and always in bondage. Why is the world today so full of fear and all these terrible syndromes that the doctors are trying to work on to help people? Psychiatrists, psychologists, M.D.'s, D.O.'s, other types of practitioners of which the chiropractors seem to be even better. They can reach in there and begin to find what's wrong with you, why you can't be adjusted, why you can't be healed. They begin to ask you questions: What happened in 1991? What happened in 1993? What happened in 1984? And as they talk to you, that all comes to the surface, and pretty soon they can adjust you. You begin to feel better.

'Vagabonds'. A 'vagabond' is 'a person with no authority over him, running from pillar to post'. Fugitives. Over the earth, running, running, running, running, running, running. They can't stand still for the peace of God. "Be still and know that I am Lord." [Ps 46:10] That's foreign to every single one.

29. (14) ...And it shall come to pass, that every one that findeth me shall slay me.
(And so on.)

See? What a difference that is from the beginning. Where do you find people in control? There's nobody in control anymore. The wicked are killing the righteous. And when they don't kill them, they take and rape them and take them for wives, and then you've got these, literally, illegitimate children of the two natures and the two breeds in them.

Now, you can be the sweetest child of God on this earth here, nobody's going to fuss about it. But what if one day you develop cancer? Great big running sores on your body; you're like Job. You can still be that child of God inside, but believe me you suffer and you cause problems. And, if somebody gets a hold of some of the stuff on your skin, like AIDS and all, you can contaminate them, and what a terrible mess it is.

30. So, that's what you see here: the whole thing festers. The child of God is not accepted. Do you know why? Because Eve broke into that realm. She was a child of God. She was just like Adam. Difference between her and Adam was merely their sexual make-up. The spirit was the same. Do you think for one minute that Eve could have a spirit of something and Adam have a spirit of something and bring forth a child? Ah, come on. They've got to have the same spirit, the same life. And it runs in continuity. See?

31. Okay, let's go to 1 Jn 3:7. Too bad people don't read their Bibles and get it down right. 1 John 3:7:

- (7) Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. (Now they've got you hooked right up to God.)
- (8) He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. (See?) ...
- (9) Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; (Tells you right there, there's a people, no matter what you see in this world, no matter how you look around you, there are people that believe God. They are not sinners.) for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

It tells you right there, it's passed on right on down. So, as Bro. Branham said, "A virgin birth is nothing compared to a human birth of a true child of God." There isn't anything to it. God created the sperm and egg for Mary, and it developed in her womb. She supplied the physical, mechanical contents and the Son child...the Son, Jesus Christ, was brought forth. But when it came to Jesus' own brothers and sisters through Mary and Joseph, you're counting in terms of billions and billions of sperm and thousands of eggs. And each one of those had to be brought together in God's mind perfectly within Mary and Joseph to bring forth that child.

"Well, I don't know about that."

You don't have to know anything about it. I'm not here to argue. I'm here for one thing, and that's to nail down the things that a vindicated prophet of God brought us. See? Now, let's keep reading.

32. And It says here:

- (10) In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whoso doeth not righteousness is not of God, (See? Mark...left some things out here because they're interpolation; they only confuse you.)
- (12) Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one,

Now, listen; let's get it flat. What did Matthew 13 say? The wicked one is the devil. Who was it that went to Adam and brought her into complete seduction...into complete humiliation—seduction—and got her pregnant? The serpent did. So, don't try to figure something out; that's what it is.

33. All the theologians say, "Well, you become a serpent seed because you turn down God. Until that time you're a child of God, and you get turned to serpent seed because you turn Him down."

Why don't you go to the horse and check on the horse? And say to the horse, "Now, horse, I don't think you're perfectly right here. Your next child you're supposed to have is a mule."

The horse would say, "Drop dead." He'd say, "My God, and I thought you humans were the one that came from God. Looks like I came from God more than you did."

Maybe we ought to have Walt Disney make a film on this. I wish we could afford it. I don't think it would sell, but it could open peoples eyes to realize, because you can animate cartoons. Just like the real thing, like 'Mr. Ed' and those. And tremendous truth could come forth. See?

- 34. (12) Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, ...his brother's righteous.

What was his righteous brother's act? The right sacrifice. What was his evil act? The wrong sacrifice. And that's what the killing came out of. So therefore, with Eve it was a right act done with the wrong person. Done with her husband, brought forth Abel and Seth; done with the serpent, it brought forth Cain.

(13) Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

Brethren don't hate each other. They can have squabbles, but there's no hatred there. If a man really hates you, you better look into it. Either you've got good cause to, or you're entirely wrong. One of the two.

35. Now, with that we go to Genesis because I want to show you this. I've showed you this before, but it's tremendously worthwhile and tremendously interesting so that you get everything all lined up. You can't... Listen. This is so beautiful and so simple. Now, in Genesis 5... Now we're looking at serpent seed and sons of God; keep that in your minds. Okay. Genesis 5:1-3.

- (1) This is the book of the generation of Adam. (Cain's not in it, and Cain's living.) In the day God created (them), in the likeness of God made he him; (And she was made in his likeness.)
- (2) Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day (that) they were created.
- (3) And Adam lived an hundred thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image; and called his name Seth.

36. Now, with that, we just hop right over to the Book of Luke. And it's chapter 3 on the genealogy, and let's look at It. The genealogy in Luke concerning Joseph. [Verse] 38.

- (38) Which was the son of Enos, which was the son of Seth, which was the son of Adam, which was the son of God.

"Well, Bro. Vayle, it doesn't mean that. Adam was merely a son by creation."

I don't think anybody in here in this church has adopted a child. For fun, let's find out. Has anybody here adopted a child, a boy or a girl? Nobody. Well, let's say you adopted a child. Would that really be your child? Hogwash. Huh-uh. So, that's what you see right here.

Adam was the son of God! God procreated him. It was not an act of creation only; God breathed into Adam the breath of lives showing that Adam would be the propagator. And It says Adam became a living soul, showing that the propagation was by the soul, which was the Holy Spirit. Why? Because the Holy Spirit's life. You give any life the required conditions of a womb, or not necessarily a womb, (Although that's usually the way.) and the necessary elements and that life will come into manifestation through those elements. Now that's not hard to understand. If you can't understand that, it's about time to go back to school. All right.

37. This shows the continuity of unchanging seed: God's seed, God's seed, God's seed, God's seed, God's seed. And it's right in the genealogy. Serpent seed, serpent seed, serpent seed, serpent seed. And it is not in the genealogy that goes back to God. Now, you might wonder why Judas' name was in the Book of Life. It couldn't help but be in the Book of Life because he was a child of Adam, and his name was taken out of the Book of Life because all children of Adam are not of God.

So, 'seed number one' is of God and cannot change. Now, there's where we get our argument. Pay no attention; go right down the road. Because we're right and they're wrong. 'Number two seed' is of Satan and it cannot change. Now, let's just go and find out.

38. We go first of all to the Book of Jude, which is that tiny book before the Book of Revelation—got just a few verses in it. And let's see; we're looking for Jude 10.

- (10) But these (people) (Serpent seed, see?) these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, (No revelation) as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.
- (11) Woe unto them! For they have gone the way of Cain, (They're just like Cain, and they do what Cain does.) (They run) greedily after the error of Balaam (Money's involved.) for reward, and (die) in the gainsayings of Core, (which they rely upon their silly, Pentecostal prophecies instead of the revealed Word of Almighty God that's been vindicated.)

And that's everywhere. And that's what Bro. Branham ran into, and this is how we run into guys like Shelly and all these guys come up here, and they ditter-datter, mither-mather some little honky-tonk, stupid thing, and the people run for it. Well, let me tell you one thing: When they run for it, they're not my brothers and sisters. Away with them; don't fool with them. Don't go near them. Forget it! Spend your time with the children of God. Dress in the righteous clothing of God.

39. Now, let's just find what Jesus had to say. We go to John 8. These are some of my favorites. I just love these. Man-o-man. So, we go to John, and it's Jn 8:37-47.

- (37) And I know that you're Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word has no place in you. (Now, there's your secret right there. What is that soul? A receptacle for the Word of God.)
- (38) I speak that which I've seen with my Father: and you do that which you've seen with your father.

Now, just a minute. That's two thousand years ago...four thousand years ago, showing the continuity of the seed. I believe (And I'm not saying this is true.) hypnotism is a trick, but I believe that people can be regressed under hypnotism—down, down, down through their ancestries. And some of you, whether you know it or not, you may have an ancestor come out of Egypt. And because it is a life, and that life must stand before God, and there's nothing lost concerning its record, a good hypnotist could have some of you people speaking in ancient Spanish—I beg your pardon, Egyptian—which nobody knows, and not be one thing wrong. It's just that life coming up, and that life coming up.

If Jesus could recognize certain spirits in Gethsemane, and Bro. Branham, our great prophet, the same man, could recognize the same spirits, don't tell me anything changes. Oh, they piddle around; they muddle around; they bring out their mutations, and they scream 'how great they are'. And I just have no time for their nonsense. You know why? Because it gets to the doctors and everybody else, and you and I end up behind the eight ball. Oh, God, have pity. Let's keep reading.

40. And It says in Jn 8:38:

- (38) I speak that which I've seen with my Father: and you do that which you've seen with your father.
- (39) They answered and said..., Abraham's our father. Jesus said..., If you were Abraham's children, you'd do the works of Abraham.
- (40) But now ye seek to kill me, a man that told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham. (Notice the parallel? No matter what Abraham heard from God, just went ahead. Whatever Jesus heard, just went ahead.)

- (41) You do the (works) of your father. (That's Cain, right down through the serpent...from the serpent.) (And they said), (Listen.) We be not born of fornication; (They understood serpent seed. They understood it. People try to tell you Jews don't understand serpent seed. Come on—the Jews are smart as a whip. It's these dumb Gentiles are goofy as bedbugs. See?) We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God.
- (42) (And) Jesus said, If God were your Father, you'd love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me.
- (43) Why do you not understand my speech? even because you cannot hear my word. (Notice the condition of serpent seed. Hey, just a minute. Could these people here be of God, that Jesus ran down and talked to? No way, shape, or form.)
- (44) You are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. (No soul with the gene, no gene of God.) When he speaketh a lie, he speaks of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. ...
- (45) ...because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.
- (46) Which of you (find me wrong in one word)? (Can't do it.) And if I say the truth, why do you not believe me?
- (47) He (Now, listen.) He that is of God heareth God's word.

Now the big thing is: What is the Word of God? Can there be a doubt in this hour when we have a man with the Pillar of Fire and THUS SAITH THE LORD and never fails? Find us something to match it. They can't do it. But they won't believe it. That's their business. Hey, I'm not out to save the world. I'll talk to those who listen.

- (47) ...ye are not of God.
- (48) Then the Jews answered and said, Say we not well...thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil?

Always the big jeer, always the big sneer. They don't have an answer because they haven't got one. Bring us a man, Mr. Pope. Come on, stand right here. You're the vicar of Christ. Stand here and give me one THUS SAITH THE LORD. Come on, just one! We've got a man that gave hundreds. He's not going to come and do it.

"I'm the vicar of Christ. I'm the vicar of Christ."

And the people listen to his bluff. Serpent seed! Come on! Children of God hear the voice of God. How many children of God are there? Not very many. See, there can't be.

41. Now, notice verse 37.

- (37) I know...you're Abraham's seed; but you seek to kill me, because my word has no place in you.

Now, let's just take a quick little jump over to Romans 9. Romans 9, oh, we love Romans 9; that's that great chapter on predestination. And in Romans 9, we come up, starting with verse 7.

- (7) Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

Now, see, what he's telling you here is this: Abraham in his body carried the two kinds of seeds: the seed of God and the seed of the serpent. And he could have fifteen hundred children by thirty, forty women, whichever, fifty or a hundred women. But the only true children of Abraham—real children—would be from the seed of God within the man.

42. (8) That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

And what is the promise? They're the ones that got it through human instrumentality to take over the Kingdom eventually, because God cannot take back His Word! In the mean time, there's an interruption; in the meantime there's discrepancy. But wait until the end of the season. They'll burn everything but the children of God. See?

Notice in verse 9:

- (9) ...this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

God never came the time that Abraham had a son by Hagar. That was Sarah's doings.

43. Crazy women. I don't dislike women. But I want you to know certain things. Women have their place, and men have their place, and don't get out of place. Now, if a woman wants to be like a man, (And they do. They wear men's clothes and everything else.) it shows what they are. And now the men are trying to be like the women: earrings and everything else. Shows what they are. You've got a mess on your hands like you simply can't believe.

They said years ago when you saw two people in the back seat of a car, you just knew one was a boy and one was a girl. Now you've got to take them out and undress them. That's the truth. A kid came by yesterday to do some measuring, and had two stupid earrings in his ears. It's not that he can't do a good job at work. I didn't say the guy wasn't a good artisan and can do things. But I tell you one thing: If he was my boy, I think I'd tell him, stay out of the house. Don't come near me. Just go your way.

You say, "Well, just a minute, Bro. Vayle."

Well, 'just a minute', you. I'm a true child of God. If he isn't one that's...He's going to be someplace else anyway. Sure, treat him nice and be nice, but you better know there's a difference, brother/sister.

44. (9) ...this is the word of promise, ...Sarah will have a son.
- (10) And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac;
- (11) (For the children being not yet born, (The eggs were in her womb, and the sperm was in his loins.) neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;)
- (12) And it was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger.

(13) As it is written, Jacob have I loved, (and) Esau have I hated.

Now, what are you going to do about the Word of God?

You say, "Well, I tell you what. I couldn't serve a God like that."

Fine. I know you couldn't; you're serpent seed. You don't hear God. You don't want anything to do with God. You want your own blasphemous organization and creeds and dogmas and all that kind of junk. Who needs it? See? All right.

45. Notice how Mt 13:38 is the same as 1 Jn 3:9-12. That's a parable. Well, it's a mystery. Mt 13:38.

(38) The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one.

Now, It doesn't say one thing about them being children of the Kingdom. So, when it's time for the Kingdom to come, they won't be there. And I don't care whose children they are and how nice they are.

Now, this is the same as 1 Jn 3:9-12, which we looked at a while ago. But it's good to look at It to keep bringing it back and forth on the grounds that you get a continuity built up in your minds, and you're putting on your garments; you're getting ready. You're not going to put on the garments of God by believing something different about this and having your own ideas.

46. So, It says here, 1 Jn 3:9-12:

(9) Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

Every single one, I don't care if they're in the same lump, they will come to the Word and believe It. And it doesn't mean for one minute that they're goody-goodies. You can be just like David; he got too big for his own britches. And so does Solomon. And so does just about everybody else. The children of God are not infallible. They're just a certain part. As Bro. Branham said, "There'll come a day when you'll realize you always were saved." There'll come a time just like now: there's a certain part does not sin. The spirit, the mind and the flesh, but never the soul. If it's of God, it accepts the Word of God right down the line.

(10) In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God.

It tells you they both worship in separate, different ways. And that's why the organizational, serpent seed bunch can't stand us, than know more they can stand Jesus or Paul, because they say, "You're going to do it our way, or else."

And we say, "Drop dead."

Anybody kills the body's fine, but they can't... But God said fear those that can kill body and soul in hell. That's serpent seed, not the other. Okay.

47. Notice how Mt 13:38 is the same as 1 Jn 3:9-12 and pinpoints the wicked one as the devil. It tells you flat: the wicked one is the devil.

And people say, "Well, I just don't really believe that that could be a child of the devil."

Then neither can you believe the other can be a child of God!

"Oh, Bro. Vayle, there's a difference."

Why don't you come and show me? Give me one THUS SAITH THE LORD. I'm in pretty bad shape today with arthritis. I didn't sleep till after midnight last night. Finally took two sleeping pills, and thank God they worked. You talk about suffering. Just come on by and lay your hands on me and say, "THUS SAITH THE LORD, you're healed," and let it be healed. Now, here's a good chance. Just come and do it. I'll be there waiting for you. Pretty silent bunch.

48. Then why not believe the Word of God? I've had good ministries. I've said to people, "Hey, just get out of the way, and pretend you're not here, and I'll take over." I've seen them healed left and right. Why can't I find somebody do that for me? I've done that not too far, a long time ago. What I've got doesn't work for me. Tell them pray the kind of faith...prayer of faith. I ain't got none. Oh, all kinds of testimonies. They'll tell you everything. Phone me and everything else and, "Oh, we're praying this-and-that. I'm sure this blah-blah-blah." Oh, come on. I'm still a bag of bones of suffering. Do something about it. Strange, isn't it? Well, it's nice to be put on the spot. I'm put on the spot. Like Bro. Branham said, "Why shouldn't anybody else be."

49. The wicked one is the devil! Pure and simple. No argument, no reason.

Now, on top of that Bro. Branham has set forth, after reading the mystery, that this actually applies to the end time, which is our time—Malachi 4, the burning of the earth like an oven. And also, Elijah must truly come and is, without a doubt, Heb 6:1-9. Every generation, and this one, the same thing. Soon, as Bro. Branham sowed the true Word of God, you've got a bunch of guys coming behind sowing the false word of God. The Trinitarians all went Jesus-Only pretty well, and that's just as bad as being a Trinitarian.

We're not Jesus-Only. Jesus is not his own Father. The Lamb never came down; the Lamb's on the Throne. The Lamb's not comatose; he's alive. He's the High Priest. He mediates; he intercedes. He's waiting for the next incarnation. We'll be up there at the Wedding Supper to crown him King of kings and Lord of lords, and that Spirit's amongst us again incarnate to us. I don't know where these guys are coming from. Say they believe this message. What message do they believe? I'd like to know. Clear and simple as A-B-C.

50. That's what Hebrews 6 tells you. It does a great job telling you. It says:

- (1) Therefore, leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, (That's the Logos of Christ. Leave the idea now where God was incarnate in Jesus.) ...go to perfection; (Finish the thing off. Polish it off, finish.) not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, (Changing your mind about all the things you used to do.) and of faith toward God, (They're wrong on it.)
- (2) The doctrine of baptisms, laying on of hands, and resurrection of the dead, and...eternal judgment.
- (3) And this we'll do, if God permit.

We'll have this all down perfectly pat. Now we're going to go to the end when there's no more message. It's all over. You've heard the last message, the last great messenger. Well, God didn't permit.

51. Now he said:

- (4) For it's impossible for those once (for all) enlightened, have tasted the heavenly gift, made partakers of the Holy Ghost,
- (5) ...tasted the good word of God, ...the powers of the world to come,

- (6) (Having fallen) away, (to ever give them a change of mind again); seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

In the end time, what do they do? Reject him entirely and crucify him. How? By refusing to change their minds. That's how it happened in the first place. Jesus came with the proof of God: God vindicating Himself to Jesus, God vindicating Jesus to the people, God vindicating the Word. "Convince me on one word."

"Ah," they said, "Forget it." And they crucified him. On what grounds did they crucify him? On the Word!

"Tell me, for what good work do you stone me?"

"Oh, none at all! Hey, you can open a soup kitchen any day. We'll all have fun eating any good soup you made. And we'll just keep the graveyard from getting any fuller. Keep raising the dead and healing our sick. Oh, no, no, no. No problem there, but you opened your mouth against us, and we ain't going to take it."

Happened to Paul. Happened to Luther. Happened to Wesley. Happened to the Pentecostals.

52. Everybody loved Bro. Branham, the great bringer of the healing revival of the last day. Set the great Pentecostal monolith into high speed. Great!

"And there's just one God."

"Oh, you know what he said? He doesn't believe in the Trinity—the holy Trinity." [Bro. Vayle mock gasps.] "That's horrible! Why, I can tell you right now the man's not of God."

And I can take each one of those dunderheads, those stupid, insipid idiots, and read them the Bible the way they believe it: "There is one man between God and man, the God Christ Jesus." It doesn't say that. Jesus is a man; he is not God. He is not God intrinsically! But by permission of God, he is God on the grounds that he can be worshiped. So it says in the Book of Revelation. It says at the end time everybody can partake of the Holy Ghost, the powers of the world to come, the good Word of Almighty God and still fall away [Heb 6:4-6] because they didn't change their minds. What had happened? Hebrews 6 also shows that every age contains the two seeds, because Hebrews 6 is the end time. It's been going on for seven ages, and now it's harvest time.

53. Now, having recapped again so that you are utterly and irrevocably convinced. Oh boy, that's wishful thinking on my part, but I've got to have a little faith now and then. I'll read it again.

Now having recapped again so that you are utterly and irrevocably convinced—though they boil you in oil—of the serpent seed message by God who vindicated Himself to the prophet, vindicated the prophet to us, (And there by two vindications brought the third, perfect vindication of a perfect Word for this hour), we can go on with the knowledge that Bro. Branham is teaching two seeds that produced three kinds of believers in the church: the unbeliever, the make-believer, and the true believer. If I'm a make-believer, I don't know that I am. I don't know. Always thought I really believed what I taught.

54. How many minutes have we got? Huh? Well, sure doesn't leave us much time, does it? Just going back to what we read a couple Sundays ago.

[50] Now, we find that this discrepancy, (That's the serpent seed bunch.) has been sowed through every age. If it was possible to got it in the next ten...minutes, I would do it, but you can't. Down through the ages... Most all of us read the Bible—or read the Bible And now like when Jesus came, He found that discrepancy, that which was contrary. He was the Word made manifest.

And everything came against him. If the whole world comes against you for your heresy (because that's what they call it—how you worship God) say, "Hallelujah." They said to Bro. Branham, "We hear there's ten thousand believe this message." He said, "Got to shake them off. There's too many." Now they say there's a quarter million; they're being written up. I got the biggest kick out of everything. I'm the one guy that's written up and hated by everybody, and my name isn't in print anywhere. That's a good joke. That's wonderful.

55. [50] ...Down through the ages... Most all of us read the Bible. And now like when Jesus came, and He found that discrepancy, that contrariness. He was the Word made manifest. He was God's interpretation of the Word, because He said, "Search the Scripture, for in them you think you have eternal Life, and they are they that testify of me."

And they said, "Listen, bud, we've searched the Scripture. You're just a young upstart of thirty years of age." And the pulled their beards and said, "Look, we're seventy-five and eighty years of age, and we've searched the Scripture. We'll quote It to you. We don't find you anywhere!"

Huh?

56. Now, tell me that's any different today. Anybody want to take me on? I could eat a good T-bone steak one of these days. That's what it will cost you. You can't prove me wrong. It's the same thing every single time. Because a horse is a horse is a horse is a horse. And a pig is a pig and a pig is a pig. And a child of the devil, he never change his way. And bless the God, you can say the same thing about a child of God. The same modus operandi. Little different conditions. Sometimes more blatant, and outstanding other times, but there's never any change. They don't care two bits if we build houses for people, and we build hospitals and we help everybody. But the minute we say, "There is only one God, and Jesus is His Son;" the minute we preach the Truth, this is the last hour, and tell the people what the true Rapture is...

"Oh, that's impossible!"

"Hey well, what about all the good things I've done for you?"

"Well, shouldn't you have done them anyway? But you've got no right to foist your stupid ideas upon me."

Isn't that the way they do it? Ah, come on; read your papers. Yeah.

57. [50] ...they testify of Me."Oh, they said, (Like fun they do.) There you are. He was the interpretation of the Word. And he was! Like John the Baptist. And every borned-again son and daughter of this age is the interpretation of the Word.

How? By your good deeds or your lack of good deeds? No. By your testimony. You stand with the Word of God. Of course, you've got a life that goes with it. I can't stand these birds that are always worrying that we've got no life here, because I tell the people: look; when you sit under me, you've got a danger of almost dying because I just teach Word, Word, Word, Word doctrine, and there should be a lot of other taught, too. But, my God, if you've been Christians all these years, and you don't know how not to steal and how not to commit adultery and how not to covet and all, get out of here. You've not even got the first part. Go someplace else. Please don't bug me.

58. [51] Notice, "In vain do they worship me, teaching discrepancy for Doctrine. That's wrong Scripture, wrong conclusions. In vain do they worship me, teaching for Doctrine the discrepancy, the doctrines of men, and creeds of men, teaching that to be the Word of God, when it has nothing to do with the Word of God.

Certainly, because It's been spoiled and changed. You go ahead and you make a batch of cheese. And somebody comes by and throws something in and it turns into Limburger—which is fine; people do eat it. Uh. You ain't got the same thing. It's not the same cheese. No use trying to sell it for Swiss cheese. They'll say, "Swiss...[Bro. Vayle makes sniffing noises.] Swiss what? Dirty socks?" You're not going to sell it for that. How are you going to fool God? He knows when you turn the milk of God into Limburger cheese instead of Swiss cheese.

59. [51] Notice, He says, "In vain do they worship me, teaching the discrepancy doctrine...teaching...doctrine of men for creeds, ...when it has nothing to do with the Word of God." All right.

[52] Look, each age produced such a crop, every age has done it, and ours is no excuse—or no exception. We have the same thing in a greater age of it than all other ages put together, for this is the ending of the world history. This is the greatest discrepancy ever been upon the earth.

It is because it's so close to the real. Oh, it's so cunning. Satan is among the people.

Well, hallelujah, so is God. Oh, the people run with it: "Satan's amongst the people. Look at the terrible things. Oh, my, my, look at it."

I say, "Hallelujah, God's amongst the people."

60. You know what the Bible says about Satan? One day he's thrown in the Pit, and the people are going to come by, and they're narrowly going to look at him and say, "Is that the one that caused all the trouble? I...uh, uh... I can't believe that I let him cause me all this trouble. He's a bluff."

Just like the pope. He says he's the vicar of Christ, and he's here to teach Mariolatry.

"That's wonderful, that's wonderful."

It isn't to me. The guy's a phony four-flusher if there ever was one. Forget it! You can't have tripe like that, my brother/sister, wrapped around a good roast beef. Spiritual food in due season is pure. It's not full of the vomit of other ages.

61. [52] Look, each age produced such a crop, every age has..., and ours is no excuse. We've got the same thing, and the greater age of it than all other ages put together, for this is the ending of world's history. It's all over. This is the greatest discrepancy ever been on the earth, is upon the face of the earth today. Discrepancy in other ages pulled them away from the true and living Word to Rome and to idols. Today, Jesus said, in Matthew 24 it would be so close it would deceive the very Elect if...possible.

Why? Because they've got gifts of the Spirit, they live right, they do this, and one day they're going to come before God, and He'd say, "You didn't say the right thing." Remember; Bro. Branham said of some people, "You say the right thing, you're going to get it." And when the Bride learns to say the right thing, there'll be a Rapture. Bro Branham said so. Ten say the same thing.

63. [52] This is the great discrepancy...upon the earth, is on the face of the earth today. Discrepancy in other ages pulled them away from the true and living God, to idols. Today, Jesus said in Matthew 24...so close it would deceive the very Elected if it was possible. Talk about discrepancy! Oh, it's so cunning. Satan...among the people, and...such a theologian, such a Doctor of Divinity, can teach that Word almost perfectly. What about the Trinitarians that turn Jesus-Only in this Message? Don't you think for one minute they're pretty close? But just watch him; there'll be somewhere. He said, "Well, now, that wasn't for this." Oh yes, it is, too, see, because God said it was.

And so they say, "Bro. Branham's not Elijah. He was a great man, but he just got fooled. Why, the West Coast hasn't gone under yet. Different things hasn't happened."

Every now and then I read an article purported to be given by some preacher that believes in Bro. Branham, and I know that he's not being quoted right by the newspaper man. They've got it all backwards, inside-out. I thank God, when they wrote me, I wouldn't answer them. I said, "Phooey," They just want to trick you.

They say, "Bro. Vayle, we're just going to give an accurate account, blah, blah, blah." Then they say, "You see, well, Bro. Branham, he wasn't Trinitarian!"

So, I simply say, "Well, there's one mediator between God and man: the God, Christ Jesus."

They said, "Just a minute."

I said, "No, you 'just a minute', because that's what you said." They're ignorant! They're not just ignorant, they're insane! Four year old kid without God knows more than they do. He that knows much receives many stripes.

64. [53] Look what it did. That same discrepancy brought God's wrath upon the earth in the days of Noah, when God sent his apostle...

I'm going to quit there, I think. But a little bit of help from the Lord, I can make a re-cap next Sunday if the Lord helps me. We can start right there and show you some things that took place way back in the days of Noah and the things that were back there how they're repeating today, because the Bible says there is nothing new under the sun: what was, is going to be, and what is, has already been. The Lord requireth that which is past. [Eccl 3:15]

So you see, we don't need to find ourselves remiss and not ready for the great Day of the Lord. If there's any problem at all, brother/sister, it's with us. It isn't with God.

The Lord bless you. Let's rise and be dismissed.

Gracious, eternal Father, we're so grateful that we've had the privilege of being this long with You and Your people. We know it's tedious for me, but I know it's much more tedious for them. But I do hope that they've caught some glow and some glimpse of the irrevocacy of the two seeds, where there's just no use trying to talk different as serpent seed, Lord, in Your way and what You're doing. There's just no use trying to say different. It's come to the place where we have a change of mind. We come to the place where we let down all the barriers and all the veils of our heart and say, Lord, "You're right; we're wrong."

And so, Lord, You correct us day by day, because we don't have a help within our self until that day comes, Lord, when we're speaking exactly the Word of Truth, the Word of God—we're talking to You, we're talking to each other, we're doing it in church service. And then we know, Lord, the Bride will be fully dressed and prepared, and one day the dead will come forth from the ground, and we'll all take up to the Wedding Supper of the Lamb.

We know it's not too long. But if it is, Lord, and people like myself are deceased (We're going on.) that's perfectly good, Lord. I certainly don't mind. Because we've certainly come to the place, Lord, where it's right or wrong, there's no use trying to equivocate, there's no use trying to argue, there's no use trying to set the books in position. There's no use trying to get our minds this way, that way; our souls this way or our spirits this way, that way. We know, Lord, it's too late.

The die has been cast; everything has crystallized. We're just waiting now for the last little shake-down, the last little bit, and then it's all over, Lord. It's all over for Your saints especially, to whom You've already come to visit by Your Presence, the Appearing, and put everything in order, judged us and made us free of guilt and shame and degradation. Help us to receive It, Lord, and walk in the Truth, in the Light thereof, because we know, Lord, it's our fault. And somebody, Lord, has got to do it; may we be the ones.

We pray, Lord, You heal the sick amongst us.

Go with now who go, and may they love the Word of God. May they enjoy the Spirit and things of our Lord in Jesus Christ. May they not be intimidated; may they not be afraid. May they not think for one minute we're trying to hurt anybody by our uncouth way of saying things at time, Lord, because, Father, it doesn't matter to us at all what anyone believes. It is between him and God. And my job, Lord, is only to those who already believe as we do, to nail it down and clinch the nail.

Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only-wise God, be all power and glory through Jesus Christ our Savior, world without end. Amen and amen.

"Take the Name of Jesus with You."
