

Trees, Books, and Fountains # 11

(The Good Fountain)

Bro. Lee Vayle

July 30, 1989

Let us pray. Heavenly Father, we're absolutely concerned, Lord, and convicted concerning Your Presence -- not coming but have arrived -- in the form of the Holy Ghost, even, Lord, as You were with Israel leading them into the Promised Land. We believe that. We want to honor Your Presence, Lord. We want to hear from You. We want to say that which is correct and right, Lord, as it ...[were]?... inspired by You. So, let the people know what is the truth for this hour, to abide by the truth, in the truth, so that the truth may have full course and be free and You glorified in us, knowing, Father, that there is a life in the Word. That life is Your Life in that Word of the hour. ... [Or]?..., transfused by the life for the hour will bring forth in a people, Lord, what the Word said.

We're believing, Lord, therefore, that the resurrection is imminent. It's right upon us. The changing from mortality to immortality is upon us, Lord. The ends of [the] world will come upon us. We have already heard from heaven. We believe this, Lord. We know that the majority do not; it's always 'down the road', Lord. But, we believe it's true, Father, and we're waiting on You, Lord, to fulfill and complete all of Your Word which we believe is in the consummation.

Help us today, therefore, to honor You as such believers knowing that this is that hour. In Jesus' Name we pray. Amen. You may be seated.

1. Now, we've been talking about (to begin with) Trees, Books, and Fountains. And we've found, of course, that most of the studies dealt with books which were very illuminating in the light of the present hour, because so much came at the time of the Exodus, at the time of the establishing of the Kingdom. And even before the Kingdom was entered into, you will notice that God appeared to Moses and to the people in a Pillar of Fire. And the Word of God was given to them at a particular time, God Himself having done specific, particular things. And this was their entrance into the Promised Land. And so, no matter where we turn in our studies, we find that we are relating ourselves constantly to an exodus and to an entrance.

2. Now, as we approached the last message on this, just one message on fountains -- although I realize others could be brought to our attention, we're going to conclude at this one -- we notice from the Word of God, that the Word actually deals in the plurality ... the plural concerning fountains. Not just one fountain but there are other fountains. And as it talks of fountains, you will notice that it speaks of fountains that are both good and evil. And, of course, it's our intention to deal with only the 'good' fountain. And we're going to reduce it to the singular. And this is the fountain that we find spoken of in a few verses of Scripture. And I'd like to read, first of all, Ps 36:9, and it says,

- (9) For with thee is the fountain of life (the psalmist speaking to God and concerning God, "For with thee is the fountain of life").

And in Jer 2:13, and in Jer 17:13, you have the very same Scripture:

- (13) They have forsaken me, the fountain of living water.

And, again in Zech 13:1, it says,

- (1) In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and uncleanness.

And then, I've taken Jn 19:34,

- (34) But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced Jesus' side and forthwith there came out blood and water.

3. Now, as Zech 13:1 speaks of a fountain for sin and uncleanness, it is my thought that since the literal meaning of a 'fountain' can designate it to be a place which is dug, and water springs up like an artesian well by striking a vein of water, we actually consider that the opened fountain refers to the shed Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ where the spear of the soldiers and the crown of thorns and the nails in the hands and feet struck the veins and arteries of Jesus Christ causing the Blood to spurt forth upon the ground and from the ground, because Jesus' body was of earth the same as ours.

This is also said in the light of Heb 9:22-23. That's the fountain opened unto the house of David, to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and uncleanness, which could only be the Blood of Jesus Christ -- Christ being that fountain, and the water being the water out of the fountain.

4. Heb 9:22-23 says,

- (22) And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without (the) shedding (or the spurting forth) of blood (from the ruptured, pulsating, circulating system, there) is no remission (of sin).
- (23) It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these...

That's ... the pattern of things in heaven was the ark of the tabernacle and those various things that God set forth that Israel would actually build whereby they could worship God and God could worship with them ... Himself being surrounded by a Pillar of Fire, and in their midst. And it says that the pattern of things from heaven -- that is, the pattern was from heaven but the things were not -- would be purified with these, which was the blood of bulls and goats, but the heavenly things themselves ... remember, God said to Moses, "See thou make all things according to the pattern which I showed thee in the Mount", and so, therefore, everything that was produced and excited worship already was there in heaven in a form, and then in a changed form down here in a materialistic manner. And the Bible saying that blood was necessary to purify them, it would also take a blood but a much better blood from a much better sacrifice to purify the heavens themselves.

5. Now, you might wonder why the heavens themselves would have to be purified -- and we're speaking in terms of worship. It is very true (and I know you know your Scripture) that Satan one time led in the worship of God. He was the anointed Cherubim that covered and he exalted himself through pride and wished to take over the worship in the Kingdom of Almighty God and therefore he fell. So, therefore, the heavens themselves were literally polluted by what Satan did, which was to misuse [that] which God had ordained -- created and ordained-- to a life in a realm of purity.

Now, with this in mind, let us instantly notice how the procured blood was originally, and actually used in the ceremonial or type-setting rites concerning Jesus and applied to the sons of God according to the Word of God. So, what we're saying, here, is we're going to examine an original account of the shedding of the blood, and view it as the original type given to us, which is handed down to this day and, of course, is established in the meaningful relationship of not anymore the earthly but the heavenly, which I am saying is this: that this is no longer a type or a ceremony; this is an actuality.

6. So, we're going to go back to the Book of Exodus, the 12th chapter and we'll read, just instantly, verse 7,

- (7) And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat (or it says, otherwise, "upon the door-posts and the lintel thereof").

Now, Exodus 12:7 is what we find to be the definitive account of the required use of the blood even though Gen 3:21 is more original -- that is, has a beginning previous to this -- speaking of the blood that was shed as a covering. And in Gen 4:4, which speaks of a sin-offering previous to this which is an offering of appeasement toward God in order to be allowed to worship and communicate with God in hopes for God's favor.

7. So, we're going to read those verses over here in Gen 3:21, and it says,

- (21) Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make coats of skins, and clothed them. (... the blood of animals, perhaps lambs. We don't know, but more than likely lambs.)

Life was shed. And thereby, God clothed these two people. Then, over in Gen 4:4 it talks of Cain and Abel going before God, hoping to curry favor with Him by giving Him offerings -- worshipping. And notice that Cain brought the fruit of the ground which did not contain blood. But Abel brought the firstlings of his flock, which was no doubt a little lamb. He shed his blood by using a jagged sharp stone -- flint, perhaps -- to cut his throat, to bleed the carcass and to present it before God when, no doubt a flame of fire came down from God and accepted the sacrifice. But over here [Ex 12:7] we read, not so: "They shall take of the blood, strike it on the two side-posts and on the upper door-post of the houses wherein they shall eat".

8. Now, this categorical statement of the formula concerning the disposition of the shed blood in a manner which would be pleasing unto God sanctifying and liberating and empowering to the one who performed the ceremony, we take the context and read Ex 12:3-7, to begin with:

- (3) Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month (that's April) they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for an house:
- (4) And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take it according to the number of the souls; every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lamb.

Now, you can see in this particular case that it's almost to be accepted (and I think I could accept it) that the neighbor ... he'd be living next to his brother or some actual kin, rather than another tribe. We could see that, I think, as we go along and look at some Scripture.

- (5) Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year: ye shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats:
- (6) And ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening. (Many lambs were dying.)

- (7) And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

9. Then, over here, we go to the 12th and 13th verses of the same chapter:

- (12) For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the first born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD.
- (13) And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

Now, with this we had better read Num 3:12-13, as back-up verses,

- (12) ("And ... behold, I have taken the Levites" ... not so much back-up, as explanatory and enlarging) And ... behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of all the firstborn that openeth the matrix among the children of Israel: therefore the Levites shall be mine;
- (13) Because all the firstborn are mine; for on the day that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I hallowed unto me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast: mine shall they be: I am the LORD.

10. Now, it is most evident that the shedding of blood in Egypt was for the preservation of the first-born in Egypt to participate in the exodus, to the end that they die not, but go into the Promised Land where their posterity would also be until the seed ran out and the plan of God was thoroughly consummated for His Elect. Now, that's what you'll observe, because that is exactly what the Bible teaches.

The shedding of the blood, at that particular time, was to bring forth the first-born. Evidently, the second-born and the third-born would be exempt. The first-born must have the blood there upon the door of the house or they would be taken, and thereby eliminating something desperately precious to the plan of God. And this is in the human race.

Now, this sprinkled blood was upon the door posts and lintel, and was a token or sign pleasing unto God. So that in sparing the first-born, God was sparing the lineage of the whole house. That's what He was doing.

11. Shall we go to Gen 46:8,

- (8) And these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt, Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn.

Gen 49:3,

- (3) Reuben, thou art my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power:

Now, that was the positive; that's what he was born to. That's what he would end up as, regardless of his inconsistency, which he was an adulterer. The Bible says, this man prophesying says, is, [Genesis 49:]

- (4) Unstable as water, thou shalt not excel; because ... (and so on)

But, it would not be taken from him what he was originally in God, no matter what his flesh was done here. Now, you'll notice, here, that this is making reference to the chosen and the predestinated as to the human lineage. This is what you're looking at: the shedding of the blood -- a peculiar performance -- an act concerning it, in order to protect the lineage, predestination, election, and foreknowledge. Now, this shows us that the blood shed for the first-born, which was done that one time (it was not done any other time, but the one time) was sprinkled in that manner, and was a preserving element for the life of the father passed down through his sons. As example, the tribe of Reuben appears both in the Book of Revelation, chapter 7, as concerning the Millennium where two tribes are missing because of idolatry, and reappears in the New Jerusalem in Ezechiel 48.

12. Now, we're going to go to the Scripture in the Book of Romans and we'll look, to begin, in the 9th chapter, beginning at the 1st verse, [Romans 9:]

- (1) I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,
- (2) That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.
- (3) For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

Now, watch what was in the flesh:

- (4) Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises;
- (5) Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever.

Now, you notice, in here, that this has to do with human lineage, and it's absolutely connected with God! These are the chosen sons of Adam by election through one race. "For as in Adam all die; even so in Christ all (are) made alive" [1Cor 15:22] . You will see this, here. We are looking at this picture.

13. Now, with this we go to Rom 11:1-7,

- (1) I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.
- (2) God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. (Know) ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,
- (3) Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.
- (4) But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

He said, "I have in my foreknowledge, through election unto predestination... these predestinated people are standing there right now, and they have never bowed the knee, even though you don't know about it." That's why "the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knows them that are his." [2 Tim 2:19] And even then at this present time, Paul is saying, there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

14. [Romans 11:]

- (6) And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

So we see, here, this story of election and predestination coming right down. Now with it, remember, he took himself back to Abraham, and all the tribes go back to Abraham. So let's take a look at concerning us in the same picture.

15. The 3rd chapter of Ephesians (and we could read all the verses, 1-12, but we won't really do that), and this is where Paul says that he has a revelation from God. He said,

- (2) If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward:
- (3) How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words ...

Verse 5,

- (5) Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;
- (6) That the Gentiles should be fellow heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:

So, you will notice that there is an election which is human. And Jesus Christ himself was in that human election. (See?) In other words, we're looking at a sacrifice which was one time applied significant all down through the ages concerning the offering of blood, "the fountain opened unto the house of David for sin and uncleanness", looking to an exodus where God places His people which He foreknew. Now, keep that in mind. I want you to definitely keep it in mind.

16. Now, let's go to Ephesians 1:

- (3) Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ:
- (4) According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him ...
- (5) (In love) Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,
- (6) To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved.
- (7) In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;
- (8) Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

- (9) Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself.
- (10) That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth, even in him:
- (11) In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:
- (12) That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

Now, you notice it says there, there's an actual foreknowledge, election, and predestination. And this is assured to us through the shedding of the blood! And it's identical to what you're looking at according to Exodus 12.

17. All right. Apply that today -- a lineage to return to the Millennium. A lineage about to go to the Millennium. And we see the fountain of blood allowing us the hope of Isa 65:17,

- (17) For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.
- (18) But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.
- (19) And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.
- (20) There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old, but the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed.
- (21) And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.
- (22) They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.
- (23) They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trouble; for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them.

(24) And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

(25) The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the LORD.

Now, you'll notice, right in there, that the shedding of the blood of those lambs was a 'type' of the fountain which should be open in order to bring God's people -- the lineage, the lineage of God, the line of God -- into their place of perfect destination. Now, you will notice that this is not the blood upon the Mercy Seat but upon the door of exit and entrance from Babylon (that's the body) and come into a Bride Body, as it says over here in Revelation 3. Now, in Rev 18:4 it says, "... Come out of her, my people..." Now, what is she to come out of? Egypt or Babylon.

18. Now, notice, he said here, [Revelation 3:]

(15) I know (your) works ... (you're) neither cold nor hot ...

(16) (He said, "You're lukewarm; I'm going to spew you out of my mouth".)

And here is where they are lukewarm:

(17) They say they're rich, increased with goods, have need of nothing, and know not they're wretched, miserable, blind and naked.

(18) I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear ... (In other words, this is where the garments are made, the garments of skin by the shed blood too, and, of course, coming up to the white robe): ... anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

(19) As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

Now:

(20) Behold, I stand at the door, and knock (... "I stand at the door and knock").

Now, to have a door, you've got to have a building. To have a door, you've got to have an enclosure. A door is not a door unless there's an enclosure, anymore than a gate is a gate. Now, you can say, "Well, I've got a door, here." You have a door only in the sense that there is an instrument. But it's not a door until it is literally placed in a building. That's what we're talking about. Can you visualize Jesus taking this door and standing it out in the wilderness and say, "Behold, I stand at the door and knock," and there's not an Arab, there's not a camel within 300 miles, and all there are, are sand fleas? Don't be stupid. There's a building. There's a building! And there is a door of entrance to that building ... for Christ coming into His church. But there is also another door. And that's the door that leads out of Egypt, out of organization, out of Babylon ... "Come out of her, my people." Come out in order to form a body that Christ will inhabit because He can inhabit. Matthew 25 brings the same thought. There came a cry at midnight. And it says, "Come out, and behold the Bridegroom. Come out and consort with Him." So, you've got them coming out of one building and going into another building.

19. Now, there would be no problem of coming out of Egypt, per se. The problem would be coming into the land. You need something to get you in there. The blood on the door, therefore, signifies the bringing out in order to bring in. It is not the blood upon the mercy seat, which is intercessory blood, for those that have come out. That's why Bro. Branham could say, "The blood is off the mercy seat". The blood can be off the mercy seat because there was no mercy and no blood when there was blood upon the door. Now, if there's no blood upon the door, you ain't going anywhere. Many people get confused and they say, "Blood off the mercy seat", and they go into some kind of a tizzy. They go into some kind of a real blue funk of some description, where they're completely confused. And they say, "What about the blood? No blood." Look at your Scripture. Was there blood on the mercy seat at the time of the Exodus? There was not blood upon the mercy seat! There was blood upon the door of entrance. You say, "Well, Christ is the door." That's exactly right.

20. Who stands in our midst today? God, in the form of a Pillar of Fire. Bro. Branham said, "God, condescending, standing above Israel with a Pillar of Fire, had to have the shed blood or He couldn't draw near. The Blood of Jesus Christ still is efficacious. But it is not to be confused with the blood upon the mercy seat. Not that it makes any vast difference. But it does make a difference, in the sense that you begin to understand what we are talking about. I am talking about "the fountain opened unto the house of David". Notice, Israel turned Him down. And it's only at the end-time (which is our time) and their time when the blood goes off of the Mercy Seat, that the fountain is opened unto them where they know, and they say, "How come you've got wounds in your hands? How come you're this way?" And the answer is, "Fear not. The shed blood now is open to Israel, and upon the Mercy Seat for them". But the Mercy Seat could well have closed for you and me. But not the door! Not the door that gets us out of Egypt and into the Kingdom of Almighty God.

21. Today the death angel is even now passing through the land, marking all with a seal. And the seal is either life or death. Men and women, whether they want it or not, are taking the mark of the Beast. You say, "Well, if they're taking a mark of the Beast, could they be taking and not aware of it?" A hundred percent not aware of it! Because the mark of the Beast is not the burning in the hand of a mark, or the burning on the forehead, as some people would suggest -- a tattoo mark. The prophet declared it: The 'hand' is what works for you. I brought that out the other day. Look at the word 'hand' in the Hebrew. It's not a hand at all. You and I say 'hand'; we say 'fingers'; we say 'thumb'; we say 'ears'; we say 'nose'; and that's it. But when you talk of 'a hand' in the Hebrew, it isn't a hand; it's 'an effectual source of power'. And the hand stands for an effectual source of power -- what are you doing in your life? The feet stand not for just feet; it stands for where the body is taken -- what paths are you walking? Your eyes don't simply stand for "Hey! I can see something" -- Where is your spiritual insight? Your heart does not stand for a pump that pumps blood; it stands for the source of your circulatory system wherein there is life -- what are you really like inside? (See?)

22. So, therefore, we look at this and we understand the death angel passing through the land. And there are those that are taking a mark. Cain didn't have an outward mark, as far as I know. I don't remember just what Bro. Branham said about it. But the mark is in the forehead. It means 'to think the thoughts of the organized religion'. And the hand means 'to do the work of an organized religion'. And the first thing is, the mind is completely destroyed by a Trinitarian doctrine, which is no more of God! No more of God than nothing, because God is not in three, what-so-ever. God is one! And He's one person. People don't want to believe. They just simply can't believe ...[Him]?... . Now listen: The seal of life, which is allowed us by the blood not on the Mercy Seat ... let's just say it's off, just leave it, but bring it to the place, now, where it's time to go into the Millennium. Where is the blood? The blood is on the door-post and on the lintels.

23. Now, let's go to the seals -- the four seals -- for just a minute... Revelation 6. Now, we'll just read the 8th verse. And it says,

- (8) And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And Power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death and with the beasts of the earth (and so on).

This is the brindle horse, of all the horses poured into one. And this is Death -- exactly what he is.

24. Now, in the fifth seal, you'll notice the souls under the altar which is the Elect -- Israel -- the very few of them crying out for the end-time. And notice what they're saying [Revelation 3:]

(10) ... How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

(11) And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow servants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

The 144 thousand will be sought and destroyed by the antichrist system. Now, let's understand this: I don't care if your background is Roman Catholic. You had better search and find out that the Pope has always hated Israel. The Catholic people are predestinated to fight the Israelites. The Pope had the chance to rescue the Jews from Hitler. He did nothing about it. Now, they're trying to white wash him. Golda Meir went to see the Pope and she came away spitting nails. One day they're going to form an entente, and then you watch how Rome turns on them to destroy them.

25. Now, listen: after this brindle horse, the end-seal of the lukewarm church which went right now Laodicea, it says right now, the Jews are crying out, "When are we going to receive our robes? When are we going to get out from under the altar? When are we going to have a resurrection?" Because, remember, a lot of Jews were in the first resurrection -- David ... the prophets, the great people of God came right up there with Job and with Abraham -- and they're crying, "When?" And it said, "Rest just a little while until the rest of the Elect are killed". And they're going to all come up together.

26. Now, we're right at the end-time, brother/sister. The antichrist spirit has thoroughly taken over the church. And it's all powerful because it's back into politics. Give me one reason why Margaret Thatcher goes to see the Pope. Give me one reason why our presidents go to see a Pope when it's actually illegal and contrary to the Constitution! The government stands, right when the people stand back, and says, "Oh, great Pope! Oh, great Pope!" Don't be fooled. The fundamental church will be completely fooled. I may be wrong, but I look for a Pope that's going to stand up out of America -- charismatic, suave, beautiful -- a man of stature and grace. A man, perhaps, just like Judas who raised even the dead in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Benevolent.

27. They're into politics; they're into everything. The church today can defeat any candidate. Give me one reason why a Kennedy got away with murder. Another reason why the president can sleep with any number of women and be not a disgrace. Kennedy's a perfect picture of Catholicism. And he's a perfect picture of Protestantism. Because simply as a Catholic, the Catholics on their own couldn't put him in. He had a plurality that demanded the Protestant vote. So don't go looking just at the Catholics. You had better look at what's exactly right, which is a worldwide ecumenical system that happened way back there in Baal Peor when Baalam under Baalik -- politics and religion -- joined forces and enticed the people to adultery, to sensuality: "Come-on, let's get together! We'll make a wonderful go of things." And they destroyed themselves.

Only the Blood can bring out the first-born, to be led of a prophet, and then taken over into the Millennium by the Pillar of Fire. Let's go to Hebrews.

[End of Side one, Tape one]

28. Heb 11:23-28,

- (23) By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.
- (24) By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharoah's daughter;
- (25) Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;
- (26) Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward.
- (27) By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.
- (28) Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

The first-born. The Exodus. Without the shedding of blood the first-born would never come out! Without the shedding of blood the first-born would never come out.

29. I've got a Scripture (if I can find it)... all right. In Revelation, we have the Word given to us concerning the New Jerusalem. It says, here, in [Rev] 21:22,

- (22) And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.
- (23) And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

- (24) And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.
- (25) And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

Now, who are in that beautiful City? It tells you in verse 27:

- (27) And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither (that which) worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Who are those written in the 'Lamb's book of life'? They are positively those who are of the same source as was Jesus Christ himself. They are the first-born unto God. The fountain of blood that spurted from the arteries and veins of Jesus Christ takes us from the house of sin and uncleanness to the very state that is mentioned of concerning us in 1Corinthians 15, where it says "Flesh and blood shall not inherit the kingdom of God". And it will not, because they're going to be changed into immortality. The only reason they can be changed into immortality is because of the shed blood. You say, "Well, that man has got to have the Holy Ghost". That's exactly true. But without the shedding of blood there would be no way for the Pillar of Fire to ever lead anybody into the Millennium. There's no way.

30. Let's go back to Hebrews 9, because this is the book which is a strong book, [verses] 11-22,

- (11) But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;
- (12) Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.
- (13) For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:
- (14) How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

Now, you're looking at a picture, right there, that tells you that. Adam was no longer in position, after unbelief, to serve God and live forever. He had to die. He could not get to the Tree of Life. There was no way he could possibly be purged. Do you understand what I'm saying? Then, what will allow the person today to go there? There is only one thing that will allow it, and that is a certain placing of the blood in a certain order that allows the person to get what is necessary to obtain what he must have in order to be immortalized.

31. Now, [Hebrews 9:]

- (14) How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit ...

Now, you're getting into eternal things, because an eternal Spirit is mentioned. The spirit of animals were not eternal. It was the Life of God in Christ that was eternal. Now, the shedding of that blood that was started by that life -- the life itself started a chemistry -- and so therefore, now we have the life in the blood identified. And so, now you have a blood that is efficacious to the complete purging. That means to clean as though nothing ever was there -- right back to original.

- (15) And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, ... for the redemption of the transgressors that were under the first testament, (that) they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.
- (16) For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.
- (17) For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

Now, it says that God made a promise that man once more ... he would be eternal and could go to the Tree of Life and once more take over the earth. And it says, "That is in a testament; that's a promise". But it says, "The testator has got to die", which is true. So Christ died.

32. [Hebrews 9:]

- (18) Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated without blood.
- (19) For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,

- (20) Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined (or commanded) unto you.
- (21) Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.
- (22) And almost all things, are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood (there) is no remission.

Now, let us notice here ... because you are talking of something which is eternal. And if it's eternal it's going to bring something that is not eternal within itself to a state of eternality. That's right. Now, you have an immortal seed within you, eternal -- we're not talking of that. We're talking [about] what happened to Adam. Adam was separated from God, and his body died. He went down to the dust and returned to the gases. All right. Within this Scripture, here, we're looking at the future which God has for us, based upon the blood. Now, let us notice first: the blood of the fountain was not sprinkled upon the book or the people until every prospect pertaining to the people getting ready to enter into the land (that's their homeland) had been rehearsed unto them.

33. Now, in the Book of Confession, which was the great leader, Joshua, typifying the Holy Ghost ... remember, the Book of Kings and the Book of Confession is the same book. But with Kings, the king reads it, which is the basis of judgment, discernment, help when necessary, condemnation if it's there. But in the Book of Confession, you will notice that the leader, now, takes upon himself the full strength of the Word in order to lead the people in. Because, the blood has been sprinkled upon the door post, getting them out, taking them over, positioning them in order to be ready to receive the balance of the Word.

34. Now, notice, it says right here, at this particular time, what he did when every precept to all the people had been given. Now, this is categorically the Exodus which we've been talking about -- the Book of Confession. You're past the Book of Kings; don't worry about it. You're looking at the Book of Confession. Now, it says here: when this had been read and the people were made known by revelation to them, which corresponds to the opening of the seven seals. Now, who opened the seven seals? The bloody Lamb! So, what are we talking about? We're talking about the Blood shed, which gave the right of the Book to be opened. Do you follow me? Now, that's exactly true -- the shedding of the Blood. Now watch: the Blood shed, gave the Lamb the right to open the Book! This is not talking about the Lamb who shed his blood and is mediator to bring you in! This is not talking of the Lamb who shed his Blood and the Blood on the mercy seat to keep you in! Do you follow me? Do you really understand what I am saying? This is different! This is to take you in where you belong, that you missed for 6,000 years! (See?)

35. Now, the Book is read. Joshua is our leader. The Holy Ghost can only open the Book on the grounds of the Blood. So, now the Blood has assumed a new importance and a new position. It has opened a 'door of entry' to us. And before going in, now, the full Word is given. You never got the Word down there in Egypt! You never got, there, the Word as you came out. This is a complete Word -- nothing more to be added and nothing can be taken from it.

So, it means we're going to go in. And Bro. Branham said, "How can you make a man a sinner when the Blood of Jesus Christ has scattered sin till there be no evidence?" So, now we're coming to the place ready for the Tree of Life. And the Blood is now upon the door posts and upon the lintels. But it's not only there. The Blood is sprinkled upon the Book that is complete. And the completed Book is the unsealed Book, because a revelation comes forth. Do you follow me? It's the giving of Life to the Word! How could that man do otherwise than the Word of God come right to pass, "Thus saith the Lord", and it take place? God giving Life to His Word!

36. People say the Blood is gone to the Word. Bro. Branham said, "The bleeding Word is what it was all about". Now, the Word has the complete Life of the Blood. Not only that, but at this time, which Moses said, "This Word sets you apart as a Kingdom" ... and we're a Kingdom of kings and priests unto Almighty God.

Now, the Blood is sprinkled on the people. So what are you looking at? You're looking at a people who now are solely dependent on the Life of God. Because they're not going to die; they're going to go into a kingdom. They're going to walk in, standing there. That's exactly right! You cannot change the Word of Almighty God. There is no changing to it. (See?) It can't be done.

37. We are now in the place of the invisible union. We are right today in Rev 22:10,

(10) Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book for the time is at hand.

It cannot be changed. That which is holy is holy still; that which is righteous is righteous still. If you're in Egypt, you're stuck with Egypt. If you're out of Egypt, you're stuck with this. The Blood has been entirely sprinkled. The abundant entrance that Peter spoke of has been offered unto us because the Life has come back upon the Word in this hour! I'm dealing in symbols and showing you a type, here. Exactly where we're at -- invisible union, Blood-purchased union by the Word. We are now in the Divine order where it says in Ephesians 5 that Christ loved the church and gave Himself for it. He shed his Blood. Then, in order to present it to Himself, He washes it in the waters of separation. Why? Because the Word is sprinkled by the Blood! The Life of the Word, the very Life of Jesus in whom was God and all things in Him, even creation, came down at this hour and exposed the whole thing. And it's in the Bride! These are some of the things that Bro. Branham was trying to get us to see. And now we're seeing them, by the grace of Almighty God. Headship has returned; spiritual, ready for the physical.

38. Now, we're going to go back to Leviticus 8. (Sometimes I write down the wrong thing. It makes me very disturbed, but I hope this one is right.) Leviticus 8, begin at [verse] 23. Now, concerning the shedding of blood ...

(23) And he (Moses) slew it (the lamb); and (he) took of the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot (That's all symbolical).

(24) And he brought Aaron's sons, and Moses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear (now, that's the sons), and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet: and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

Now, notice the blood upon the altar, there, signifying the mediator and intercessor is taking them in and is going to hold them in, to the lineage. "My Father which gave them to me is greater than all, and I will not lose one of them. My sheep hear my voice."

(25) And he took the fat, and the rump ... (and so on, and burnt it ... so on)

(26) ... a cake of oiled bread, and one wafer ... (he put) upon the right shoulder:

(27) And he put all upon Aaron's hands, and upon his sons' hands, and waved them for a wave offering before the LORD.

(28) And Moses took them from off their hands, and burnt them on the altar ... (because the offering was made by fire).

(29) And Moses took the breast, and waved it ... (and so on)

(30) And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons' garments ... (and so on)

39. Now, you notice, right in there, that the sanctifying blood upon the altar allowed the anointing. But it wasn't the sanctifying blood upon the altar that brought the Anointer. It's different. That's why [when] people will cry upon God and to God for salvation, it won't work. It's not that the blood is gone. It's too late. It's now in a different sense and a different direction. Because the Life of the Word is "You shall not die!" But the world changed it. "Millions now living will never die", is a lie. That is not in the Bible! In the Bible ... "As it was in the days of Noah", where few, even eight souls get saved. So, don't make God a liar, and don't try to make the Blood do this and that. It isn't going to do it.

Now, I hope you're getting something, here. See, you're getting ready to go in. And I say with Bro. Branham, " If we're not Bride -- and you're not here and I'm not here getting the value of this message -- somebody out there is going to get it, not long from now"! That's right.

40. [Leviticus 8:]

- (31) And Moses said unto Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.

Listen, that's not the lamb and the bitter herbs of the exit! This is a daily communion with the priesthood. You know, the Egyptians and Israelites might have been pretty friendly down there. They might have seen a lot of good people. And said, "You know, these Egyptians, I just can't see the wrath of God falling on them". Babylon's full of nice people -- nice Pentecostals, especially. They sacrifice. They do everything under God's high heaven. They look like the fruit of the earth. This doesn't obtain. What does obtain at this hour -- the bitter herbs and the shed blood for the exodus.

Do you follow what I'm saying? You don't have to. It's okay. Maybe I'm wrong ... I don't believe I am, for fifteen seconds. Okay ...

- (32) And that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread shall ye burn with fire. (That's regular Communion that Bro. Branham talked about -- "show forth the Lord's death till he come".)
- (33) And ye shall not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation in seven days, until the days of your consecration be at an end: for seven days shall he consecrate you.
- (34) As he hath done this day, so the LORD hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.

(35) Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, that ye die not: for so I am commanded.

(36) So Aaron and his sons did all things which the LORD commanded

41. All right, for seven church ages you could do that. You could have your sanctuary. Bro. Branham said, "Back in those days you could join a church. You could do this, you could do that, and you get away with it. But tonight is different." Tonight is different. Then, the Blood does not hold there any longer! No sir. The Blood now is applied to a door of entry, having exited by the Blood that allowed the Holy Spirit to come on down, vindicate Himself, His prophet, and His Own Word, and establish the fact that this is the hour of going in. Now, then, where is the Blood? It's true, there is only one place where the Blood is on the mercy seat at this time, and that's for Israel ... unless there are a few coming in. I'm not going to worry about placing the Blood five minutes from now ... five minutes back, forward, and so on. But I want you to get a picture here.

Now, Moses applied the blood to Aaron and his sons, sanctifying them to the ministry of bringing the Word to the people, which they did. But notice, again, in Hebrews 9 ... the foundation poured whereby the blood was sprinkled and the blood poured forth for the sprinkling. It was for sprinkling the book, the people, and the tabernacle. Now, let's take an understanding of this, here, because it says that. And then it says the very heavens themselves were purified. (We read it, but let's go back to it anyway.)

42. Heb 9:19-28,

(19) For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book and all the people,

(20) Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

(21) Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

All right. Let's look at it. We have here Almighty God at this particular time. And this is before literally passing into the Promised Land. Because Moses did this, and Moses did not pass in. Had Moses not done this they would not have passed in. So, you see the power of the blood to bring them out and to take them in. And now it says right here, in the interim period this all took place.

43. Now, remember when we go to the Millennium there is also a temple. I don't understand it, but there is. There's a worship. New Jerusalem doesn't have it. There's a sun and a moon, everything goes on natural, except the people are not natural. It's a honeymoon period. They're immortal. The 144,000 are there because they are attendance unto the Groom and the Bride. All the rest, other than that, are dead. No foolish virgin. Nobody will be there. As far as I know about what Bro. Branham taught, I believe that's right.

44. Now, it says right in here at this particular time -- and they haven't got in -- they have already set themselves up under the program of the sprinkling of the blood that indicates the life has now moved over ... to what? Well, let's look at it. The Book ... the Word of God, is sprinkled first because the Word pertains to the people. So, therefore, the Book now lives to the people. The next thing is: the people are sprinkled, signifying the life has moved to the people. What life? The life of the hour has moved to the people. What is the third thing? It says the tabernacle. Now, what was the tabernacle? It was the place where the people met around it where God was. So now, therefore, what are we looking at? The Tabernacle in the wilderness that led them! So, where's the leadership now? The life and leadership is in God. There are no holy-ones. There are no presbyters. There are no popes. There are no presidents. There are no conferences. And people say, "Come here and look there. He's there. He's there". You're a liar! It's right there, in a Pillar of Fire. And it is now over the whole people. There is no longer any body rising up, as I tried to show you the other day. Men rose up with a perfect latter-rain trap: "Because now Moses is gone, who's going to take his place?" They said to me years ago, "Who ... why, Lee Vayle, you're the one that new Bro. Branham. You're the one that wrote the books. You're logical."

I said, "Hogwash! Nobody ever takes the prophet's place!" People trying to be somebody. Listen, congregation, if you've got thoughts you're called to preach in you, get out there and preach! I'll give you a $5,000 check. Right now, stand up and say, "Bro. Vayle, I'm called to preach". Then, get out there and do it. Nobody gave me a nickel, hardly. Two bucks I got when I went out. I'll give you twenty-five hundred more than I've had. Say, "I'm called to this thing!" ...?... That's right! Brother/sister, you're dealing with a tough cookie up here, because I've been through it.

45. There's a tabernacle completely sanctified. There is a God completely sanctified to us. There is a ministry. People try to ...?... a five-fold ministry.

"Oh, there's no more five-fold ministry," said one fellow.

"How do you make out?" I said to him.

“Well,” he said, “Bro. Branham is the prophet, the apostle, the teacher, the evangelist.”

“What are you?”

He said, “I’m the pastor.”

But it’s dangerous to hear me preach, according to him. I could lead you wrong. I’ll tell you one thing: If you’re being led wrong, you’d better thank God. This is the best wrong you’ve ever had in your life. Right.

46. The sprinkling of the tabernacle, all the vessels of the ministry. There are no big ones. There are no little ones. The whole shebang was ...[sinners]? ... under the blood and sprinkled by the life of the blood which was the Life of God, making it all God. You say, “Bro. Vayle, I look around and I don’t like my life and I don’t like my brother’s life”. That’s right, because all you’ve got is brotherly love. You’re sticky. How do you spell it? S-t-i-n-k-y? [Laughter] Put the ‘n’ in instead of the ‘k’ [c]. Stinky more than sticky. Oh yah! It goes all the time. You can see the prophet’s right. But there is One Who is love! God’s not a sentiment. God’s a person. And God is love. You’re talking about the intrinsic truth, and you’re talking now about the life of the blood. Now, let me tell you, the life Himself ... the life Himself that took on a Blood was here with the prophet, and is here with us now, leading us in. There are no big ones; there are no little ones. Then why do people try to act like ...?...? “Here, Bro. Vayle, you act like ...?...”. I stand with my ministry. Listen, I’m happy to leave you folks sit here any time you want. I’m so tired within myself. I’d like to call it quits. You say, “Why don’t you do it?” Well, you tell me how it can be done.

47. [Hebrews 9:]

- (23) It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these: but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices ...
- (24) For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us.

Right now God’s presence, and the presence of the Lamb is defiled. But the Blood holds everything true there just waiting, now, for the Life that’s in the Blood down here to say, “All right, now ... White Throne, it’s all over! Here comes new heaven and new earth”. What does it? The power of the Blood. We’re speaking of that, absolutely. So there it is.

48. Now, listen: It's all been sanctified through the blood. And the cleansing by the Holy Spirit is going on. Thus, the opened fountain pouring forth life washes, renews, and recreates the entire universe of God by removing and scattering sin, by purging till there be no evidence of sin. The Life that was in the Blood can now restore and recreate. Exactly right. The very Life ... why? Because it was the Blood that fell upon the earth. Let us note that every book of God, every creation of God is touched by blood, or there is now life in it. Over here in John 6 ... (we might as well read it. I'll take the time because I say, we're closing out this ... you could take different sermons on this. I'm not going to do it.)

49. Jn 6:47,

(47) Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

(48) I am the bread of life.

(49) Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

Now notice, right there, it tells you positively when Moses went with Aaron and the priesthood -- and, remember, we're talking of first-born. And the Bible distinctly calls us first-born. God and His first-born, because we're just like Jesus in a limited sense. The first-born from the dust of the earth. We're talking of us, now, standing here. We're not even going to die, but stand with the elect. Now here, he says that bread which stood there before the blood (now watch ...) gave them the ability to handle the Word of Life -- that Life in the blood. "Your fathers ate manna and are dead."

(50) This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

(51) I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

(52) The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

(53) Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

(54) Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

- (55) For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. (Now, that's a promise to those that die. What about today?)
- (56) He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.
- (57) As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

50. Now, He says He's the bread of Life. What's the bread of Life for this hour? The same as He said at the grave site of Lazarus, "He that believeth in me shall never perish. Do you believe this? Believest thou this?" Can the church believe today that it won't die? I'm not saying you won't die. I'm just saying, "Can you accept this hour, in the face of all the Pharisees, that He is here to raise the dead so we won't die?" Now, you see, the Blood gives you that -- the blood upon the door posts and lintels. It's not the interceding blood, not the mediating blood now, although that was there (you've got it), has now taken a grander and greater course. And this is, "He that eateth me eats the Life," eats the Word which has the Life of God in it. Where Bro. Branham said, "That Word has come to Life, the living Word manifested among us." We've got to believe those things. That's exactly true.

51. All right, now remember, in Exodus 24 ... let's go back here. You might not follow everything I'm saying but I know you're getting a picture of it. And that's all I really want you to get. It doesn't really matter. Okay, Ex 24:4.

- (4) And Moses wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the hill, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel.
- (5) And he sent young men of the children of Israel, which offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen unto the LORD.
- (6) And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basons; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.
- (7) And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the LORD hath said will we do, and be obedient.
- (8) And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words.

So now, you've got the most perfect picture in all the world. The blood is divided ... altar and on the people. Same blood. The Book of Covenant. Now, what am I trying to tell you? This Life today, by the shedding of blood, the fountain opened for sin and uncleanness, the fountain ready to go to the House of David pronounces to you and me a covenant: "We shall not all sleep. Be not ignorant concerning this thing: that at the time of the resurrection (and you standing here), the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a message". That was a covenant written. Today the covenant has been fulfilled, for the Lord has descended with a Shout bringing the covenant of the factor of the dead coming forth and we being changed and together going to the Wedding Supper and coming back in Revelation 19. The Blood did it. The Blood allowed it. And the covenant here, the fountain, has been opened to that extent. And the same fountain opened is now unto the House of David where Israel will soon come in, brought into the Kingdom.

52. There is nothing that does not have its redemption in the source of Blood. The Holy Spirit can recognize only the cleansing of the Blood; that's all. The Blood fell upon the ground making way for the earth's recreation. And we came out of the earth, so we're going to be recreated. Remember, Jesus came out of the earth, and he was recreated. Abraham came out of the earth, and he was recreated. Our bodies are earthen. We are assured of the resurrection, for the Blood fell on the earth and we are a part of the earth. And we know we are part of that earth that is going to be glorified, because we have been sprinkled by the Blood -- sprinkled by the Life of the Blood. Remember what Bro. Branham spoke on 'Token'.

53. Now, let's get ready and kind of change in a little note, here. The Word is bread. The bread cannot grow without water. Water comes out of a fountain. Except for the fountain there would be no bread. And if there would be no bread, there would be no life. There would not be any bread at all. Nothing would be granted us. We'd be starving, absolutely. I've got a note, here, about Rev 21:6.

- (6) And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

The fountain opened for sin and uncleanness has done its work. The fountain is now open for those that are athirst for the water of life, and receive it very freely.

54. In Rev 22:17,

- (17) And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take of the water of life freely.

Now, what is he talking about? Over here, with the Book opened it tells you, “the filthy are filthy, the righteous are righteous”. But he says, here, these people under the seals that are righteous before God -- that means a very special manifested work of the Blood -- now have a right to come to the Tree of Life and live forever. And He said, “I, Jesus, have testified to this”. Now, when He says over here, therefore, “... the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And anybody thirsty, come”, you come on. And at the same time you know it’s only the one group of people -- believers. Watch it,

(18) ... If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues ...

(19) And if any man shall take away ... God shall take away his part ...

55. Now, here’s a people led as a church right up to the Holy City, right up to Hebrews 12 where it says, “We’ve come unto Mount Zion”. Let’s go and look at it. You can never hear these Scriptures too often, because it takes a long time to get them. Notice in verse 22:

(22) But (you are not come unto Mt. Sinai) ye are come unto Mt. Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of (messengers)

(23) To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,

(24) And to Jesus, the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

It tells you, you come right to Him. “... the spirits of just men made perfect”. They without us cannot be made perfect. You come right to the place of there’s nothing left but the New Jerusalem. You come right to the Presence of God in a way that you never came before. You come by him who was the mediator. But, listen, at New Jerusalem there isn’t a mediator. You don’t need one! Although, the fact is he’s the Lamb on the Throne. Call it that if you want. But where are the sinners come in? There aren’t any coming in. Where are the people to be held in because they’re in sin? There isn’t any sin there. What are you looking at? You are looking at a complete new factor, a complete new picture in the great understanding and plan of Almighty God. That’s why Bro. Branham spoke as he said, “Time and eternity mixed We are no longer what we were”. And the devil will do everything he can to deny it and destroy us so we don’t believe it.

56. Let's look over here in John 7; Jesus is speaking on that great day. Now, listen,

(37) In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried ...
If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

Now listen, when did Jesus cry? You say, "At the last feast". What is the last feast? The Feast of Tabernacles! What's the Feast of Tabernacles? What is a tabernacle? It's when they have a memorial of the time of their instability when they were looking to get out, to go in. Now, at that time there was instituted an eighth day. And Bro. Branham said, "That is the Millennium -- God starting all over again". So, therefore, at the last day Jesus was crying, typifying the great Feast of Tabernacles when they lived in these little houses made out of the boughs of trees and all, showing that they weren't there permanent. They had a permanent God. They had a permanent understand. They knew where they were going. They understood the things of God, but they stood right there. And at that day, Jesus stood and cried and said, "Come unto me you that thirst. Come unto me for the Blood of sprinkling, the Life of sprinkling. Come unto me so the whole thing is spiritual. Come unto me now where you don't recognize the physical". You become like Abraham. "Abraham, you're dead. You are even sicker this morning than you were yesterday!" He said, "Who gives a rip!" (Is this the end of the tape?)

[End of tape one, side two]

57. (This is ridiculous ... turn it back a few feet.) He looked at his wife's body. They said, "Look-it, she can't have a baby. He said, "Shut up!" ...?... I'm looking at the sprinkling of the Word. I'm looking at the blood I've shed for this very promise. Now (he said), the life of the blood stands for me until the life of God comes in." Now, I want to ask you something: Was it the life of the bulls and goats that gave Abraham his regeneration? Hogwash! It was the life of the Word. What are we looking for in our Feast of Tabernacles? You're sitting here with more aches and pains than you had a month ago. I keep trying to fool you. I get everything I can to make me feel better. Sometimes it works real well. I say, "Hey, that's working." The next day, Pbbth! Then it's gone. I say, "Well, I try everything that ..." Bro. Branham said, "The doctors, when they cannot do a thing for you, then you turn to God." Well, the doctors are trying to help me. They say, "When are you going to get it?" I'll get it; don't you worry. And I'll be changed; you won't even recognize me ... hardly. Got some old pictures you might recognize. I'll be even better than that.

58. In that great day, in the day of the Feast of Tabernacles, a memorial to the time of leaving Egypt we have left Babylon. Now we stand here waiting for the full working of the Word. Waiting to go into that land. We honor, therefore, now, the sprinkling of the blood in a type, knowing that at this hour it is no longer a 'type'. It is the life of the Word at this hour that takes us in.

That's why I say, that for the last twenty-five years since Bro. Branham died, "If the Word doesn't do it, it's not going to be done!"

But, there's got to be some place for the Word. Now, where was the Word with the tabernacle? In the old days the tabernacle, the ark of the covenant, there was manna, there was Aaron's rod that budded, and there was the Word. But I want to tell you something: Something happened to Aaron's rod; it went somewhere. Something happened to the manna; I don't know. But the Word was there. And when there were thunders and lightnings and earthquakes, looking in the heavenly place, what was there in the ark of the covenant? It was the Word that was there! Why? Because the Word contains the Life.

59. Now, brother/sister, why are men dying in their sins today? Why will they not make the Millennium? Why will they not be in there, raptured? The Bible says, "There is no condemnation because the Blood was shed". And yet it says, "This is the condemnation, that men loved darkness rather than light because their deeds are evil". And the Bible distinctly says, "That which makes manifest is light". And that's exactly what was made manifest [Bro. Vayle points to the picture]. Therefore, that is light! And they won't come to it; so, therefore, there's no leadership into the Millennium. There's no way to get into it. And they're going to die.

60. Listen, they'll talk about the fountain opened to the house of Israel. They'll talk about the shedding of the lamb's blood. They'll talk about a lamb-for-a-house. But it will not do any good. No sir, it won't. The Blood of cleansing has come so far as the placing of sons. A true manifestation of Bro. Branham could absolutely prove God in a prophet. Came right down to a Mt. Carmel showdown. They turned it aside. This is that hour that the cosmos of God is now looking for its complete regeneration. This is that same hour that there is a lamb-for-a-house, absolutely. There was back there in Israel. That that life would come on down, there had to be a fulfillment of that chain of life that came from God. And I know this will all my heart: There's not going to be one sheep that doesn't [?] miss it. There's not going to be one person written in that Book that's going to miss it. They won't do it. Actually, the tares are coming to harvest, also. The water is ripening them. The same anointing is upon them as is upon us. But it's a different Word. Those with no place at all for Word but foolishly took the promises of God, as we showed you they could do, and used them to their own destruction, they'll go to the Lake of Fire. There will be those who are simple, good-hearted people that didn't see and didn't understand but no place for the Word, for the Holy Ghost, they'll come up with the Second Resurrection, and they will make it.

61. But this morning, God is standing guard. We're talking now of the Blood at the Passover -- the time that God stood guard. The time that God went down into Egypt with a prophet and brought them out. The time that God left the people in a position whereby the prophet could give them the Word. The time whereby God took that prophet, after he did everything he could, and God Himself obligated Himself by bringing to our attention, the Word. That God listened only to those who spoke one-to-another. Spoke the Word of what hour? The hour that the earth burns.

Brother/sister, I hope you begin to see there's a fountain been open. And want you to know the life of that fountain is greater than ever. The 'epiphanea' of Jesus Christ in the form of the Holy Ghost coming down here in the great and wonderful ministry, brought a greater light than the world has ever seen at this hour because this is the light that takes us in the Millennium. And this is the life that goes with it. Absolutely. We're in crucial days.

62. So, therefore, we see a fountain -- a beautiful fountain. That fountain, like the river of Ezekiel in the Eastern Gate. Remember, it didn't start as a great river. As it came to the gate, it was a river. And as it passed the gate it began to swell, greater and greater, until from that little tiny trickle of a fountain -- and we're concerning, now, the Life of the Word that is going to put us into the New Jerusalem -- that little trickle in the days of Luther was up to the ankle. In the days of Wesley it came to the knees. In the days of Pentecost it came to the thighs. And in the days of the prophet it has swollen above the thighs. It became waters to swim in; it became water that would take you across a river of great depth.

63. We are looking, today, not at a God who diminished. We are looking at a God who started a fountain in a simple-born child in a manger, that the world turned down. And yet, when His Life came back upon the world, kings and armies could never destroy it. Nations could rise against it. And now we're coming to a day when the World Conference of Churches, which will embody, by the wealth and the vote of the world, every type of power that there is, I'll tell you something: The life released from the blood upon the door post is going to take us right into the Millennium, and then the glorified Kingdom of Almighty God.

64. Yes, there has been a fountain opened in the house of David, opened to it. And I'm glad that fountain has been opened to you and me until it has swollen from the time of Luther to rivers of water to carry us over into the Millennium. You're not going to do it by yourself, brother/sister. The man that can't swim, but can get across is the man that relaxes and just lets the water carry him there. You're not going to do it with a struggle. You're not going to do it with a commitment. I see Bro. Branham said, "I'm going to consecrate myself to the visitation of angels". You know what he did? He put on his old dungarees, his old cowboy hat, his walking shoes, and he took his rifle and went out to relax. You can't claw your way up; I can't claw my way up. There's no way we can do it. But, together we can believe the Word of the Lord.

65. I'm glad we're living in the Last Day. I'm glad we're living in this hour. I'm glad the fountain has become a swollen river. And nobody's going to drown in it, that understands the Name of the Word of the hour; that knows, commits himself to it. I want to ask you a question: Can you grow one cubit by taking thought? Can you call back your missing hair that you lost, by just thinking about it? Can you cross the swelling tide of Jordan just because you want to? You say, "No. What's behind it all is the life". And if I could do something about that life, you'd better believe I'd have all my hairs back. And if I thought I needed really to be a little taller, I'd be a little taller. You really don't need to be. Adam wasn't any great big goof-off. But the serpent was; he was a giant. You ...[see]?..., just if I had that life ... I'm going to tell you something: As Bro. Branham preached The Token, that the blood was sprinkled upon the Book, upon the people, upon the priesthood, upon the tabernacle, the same thing today. There is a holy people unto our God. And some of those people are not going to die. And those that have died are going to come back shortly. I've got to believe that. I've got to understand it.

You say, what if I die? I'm seventy-five; I could die. But there are some of you sitting here, there's no way you'll die. There's no way the Word of God can be fulfilled if you die. You say, "How do you know?" Because I've already seen the Life of the Word that guaranteed it. I've already seen the sprinkling of the Token. I've seen the application of the entire tabernacle of God coming together. I've seen by faith and grace the people standing on this earth talking together. From the first Age to the last Age, and then at the Trumpet, rising to the Wedding Supper to crown the incarnated Spirit of the Great God that's amongst us.

66. Now, the point is: How real is this? It'll affect your breathing ... oh, yah. It'll affect your sleeping. It'll affect your conversation. It will. But not one make-believer is going to make it. Not one hypocrite is going to get by. Not one unbeliever is going to be in that bunch. Because, in God there is no lie. There is no shadow of turning. There isn't any death. There isn't any make-belief, isn't any unbelief. What do you think? You can't do it and I can't do it. But there is somebody who can do it. Now, my question is: How much do you respect Him? It's a good question. We've seen His foundation; we've got a picture on a piece of film. [Bro. Vayle points to the picture on the wall.] What about the day that's coming? Let's rise and be dismissed.

67. Let's just bow our heads at this time, shall we? Now, you close your eyes. I want to talk to you. I stand in doubt of some of you. I've talked to you. I've watched you. But I haven't seen the fruit I'd like to see, because you don't listen. And some are carrying on in an act. You're looking for excuses -- this, that, and the other thing. You're wrong. Better just to admit who you are this morning, and ask God to save you, because that's what you need.

We have a tragic danger, especially with young people. You're more concerned with your raging hormones and how you look, instead of what's lying ahead. Well, you'll suffer as you've never suffered, in a Great Tribulation. And all the more because you know the things of God and you won't listen. And some of you parents aren't helping your kids at all, because it just doesn't matter. You think it's love? It isn't love. It's stupidity; it's folly. Back in the days where Bro. Branham spoke of the Token, and Bro. Branham said the woman called,

"Hey, ...[girlie]?... let's go out (you know). I'm under the Token."

"Are your mother and father ...?..."

Said, "Awe, go on out; it's okay. You only live once."

68. This church needs sanctifying grace. Believe me, you need it. Some of you need it real bad. Do you think David knew [at] age twenty [that] in one hour he'd be gone? What do you think his parents would have done that morning if they had known that day their boy would have been gone? I'm not trying to make them feel bad. I know that they feel bad enough. And I know that the boy left home happy and all. There's nothing wrong with the family. But just what about it? What are you doing today?

This church had better be under a Token, brother/sister. You're not answerable for certain people except for a certain age. Better to sanctify the Lord God today in your hearts, minds, and life, and your home, as Bro. Branham said. If there's something in there that shouldn't be there, it's time to get rid of it. You see, within ourselves we've got enough trouble without bringing something else in the house. Right? It's true. We don't want anyone to miss out. I'm not going to say, "Raise your hands; come up to the front, here", unless you put faith in what you did. I want you to put faith in God who did it for Israel. That's right. There's such a thing as God doing it for you, brother/sister. If He doesn't do it, it isn't going to be worth it anyway. You just joined a church or subscribed to something. But ...[the day]?... is life. I'm going to leave you with yourselves this morning. Let's pray.

Heavenly Father, we know there's a fountain open. We've got 2,000 years of history of that fountain. It always was open, really. It's just that it came in a human form, and died, and then ... You let people receive the Holy Ghost after that manner. We understand these things, Lord. You're the same "yesterday, today, and forever". You don't change anything -- Yourself, or the way You do, what You do. It's just that there are various times and elements concerned and it looks like there's a changing God. But You don't change, Lord, at all. You're the faithful God.

And we're going back, Lord, to that day when You led Israel out. You made a door for the first-born -- that's us, the Elect -- to get in there to the great heavenly land. And, Father, I pray that I don't miss that. And I pray that none of us miss it, O God. And, Lord, I know that really boils down to one thing: Am I fooling myself? But, Lord, if I'm really elected, and we've got really elected people here, it's going to be producing changes and differences. It's going to be changing, and more and more, Lord, because we know that Your own Word tells us "the path to the righteous shine more and more unto the perfect day". And we know that You said that Your Word "is a light and a lamp to our feet and our path". So, therefore, the Word is going to be brighter and brighter, Lord. More and more until we're truly not just a Word-people by birth, but we're a Word-people by growth. And a Word-people, Lord, in manifestation -- the manifestation You want, in the hour You want it. We're not trying to put ourselves anywhere, Lord. We're just trying to get right with what You said by a vindicated prophet.

Forgive us our sins this morning, Lord, and take away all unbelief. And especially, Lord, this morning I pray You will take away all the unbelief that comes against this Word that positions us. This life of God in our midst, delineated by a Word, truly manifested by the keeping of the Word, proving that the rest of the Word is kept by the same God Who did the vindicating, so that we can say, "The Lord is my helper; I am not afraid". We identify with the full identification of the last hour of Philipians, even as Paul could not (though it was there) and were he here, today, instead of Bro. Branham, he would have. But we saw the full identification.

Now, Lord, what we missed in time past, being willful in our ways and not obedient, forgive us of every sin this morning, we pray. Cleanse us from all unrighteousness, O Thou living God, and may we from this moment walk in deeper consecration, in greater respect, in more love, worshipping You, loving You, loving and helping our brethren until this becomes the prime moving factor in the end of our lives. That it can truly be said that God lived in us and we live for others.

Unto Thee, Lord, is all the glory and all the honor, if anything comes of this service, if anything happens in our hearts, minds, and lives. Any life, Lord, anything that comes forth is from You, Lord. And we give Thee the glory.

May the sick be healed amongst us. May there be people, here, this morning, Lord, not only changed in heart but be changed in body because we take this Message for our healing. And part of the Message, Lord, of the sprinkling of that hour of Exodus was "there wasn't one sick amongst them". Father, let us believe that as the people. Help us to understand that today.

Now, unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God be all power and honor and glory, through Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.
